The Cotswolds A New Study:

A Biography of Power: Research and Excavations at the Iron Age 'oppidum' of Bagendon, Gloucestershire (1979-2017) Tom Moore, 2020-07-30 This book explores the changing nature of power and identity from the Iron Age to the Roman period in Britain It provides fresh insights into the origins and nature of one of the lesser known but perhaps most significant Late Iron Age oppida in Britain Bagendon in Gloucestershire The Cotswolds Joscelyne Finberg, 1977

British Foreign Policy, National Identity, and Neoclassical Realism Amelia Hadfield-Amkhan, 2010-10-16 This groundbreaking study offers a genuinely multidisciplinary exploration of cultural influences on foreign policy Through an innovative blend of historical analysis neoclassical realist theory and cultural studies Amelia Hadfield Amkhan shows how national identity has been a catalyst for British foreign policy decisions helping the state to both define and defend itself Representing key points of crisis from the past two centuries her case studies include the 1882 attempt to construct a channel tunnel to France the frantic 1909 Dreadnought race with Germany the 1982 Falklands War with Argentina and the 2003 decision to remain outside the Eurozone The author argues that these events marking the decline of a great power have forced Britain's society and government into periods of deep self reflection that are carved into its culture and etched into its policy stances on central issues of sovereignty territorial integrity international recognition and even monetary policy
