Bibliographic Guide to Theatre Arts New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1983 The Film Work of Norman McLaren Terence Dobson,2006 For half a century from the 1930s to the 1980s the celebrated Canadian animator Norman McLaren made films at a prodigious rate his output averaged about one film every year The innovatory nature of his films won him worldwide acclaim honours and prizes including an Oscar Curiously there has been a dearth of serious literature that focuses on the film work of Norman McLaren One reason for this has been the difficulty in identifying constants through McLaren s work The very scope of McLaren s innovations together with the varied purposes of his films meant that McLaren s films appeared incongruent There is for example the shocking violence of Neighbours and the gentle whimsy of Hen Hop the didacticism of Canon or Rythmetic and the scintillating abstract energy of Begone Dull Care the functionalism of Book Bargain and the sublime beauty of Pas de deux By looking at the nature and span of McLaren s innovations and by putting his work in the context of his own ambitions and of his era Terence Dobson approaches the puzzles that are set by the film work of Norman McLaren On the way the encounter with McLaren s movies which features a detailed analysis of some of his chief works provides a pivotal view of one of the major film makers of the twentieth century
