Hawk Tony Hawk, Sean Mortimer, 2010-09-21 For Tony Hawk it wasn't enough to skate for two decades to invent more than eighty tricks and to win more than twice as many professional contests as any other skater It wasn't enough to knock himself unconscious more than ten times fracture several ribs break his elbow knock out his teeth twice compress the vertebrae in his back pop his bursa sack get more than fifty stitches laced into his shins rip apart the cartilage in his knee bruise his tailbone sprain his ankles and tear his ligaments too many times to count No He had to land the 900 And after thirteen years of failed attempts he nailed it It had never been done before Growing up in Sierra Mesa California Tony was a hyperactive demon child with an I44 IQ He threw tantrums terrorized the nanny until she quit exploded with rage whenever he lost a game this was a kid who was expelled from preschool When his brother Steve gave him a blue plastic hand me down skateboard and his father built a skate ramp in the driveway Tony finally found his outlet while skating he could be as hard on himself as he was on everyone around him But it wasn't an easy ride to the top of the skating game Fellow skaters mocked his skating style and dubbed him a circus skater He was so skinny he had to wear elbow pads on his knees and so light he had to ollie just to catch air off a ramp He was so desperate to be accepted by young skating legends like Steve Caballero Mike McGill and Christian Hosoi that he ate gum from between Steve's toes But a few years of determination and hard work paid off in multiple professional wins and the skaters who once had mocked him were now trying to learn his tricks Tony had created a new style of skating In Hawk Tony goes behind the scenes of competitions demos and movies and shares the less glamorous demands of being a skateboarder from skating on Italian TV wearing see through plastic shorts to doing a demo in Brazil after throwing up for five days straight from food poisoning He's dealt with teammates who lit themselves and other subjects on fire driving down a freeway as the dashboard of their van burned He's gone through the unpredictable ride of the skateboard industry during which in the span of a few years his annual income shrank to what he had made in a single month and then rebounded into seven figures But Tony's greatest difficulty was dealing with the loss of his number one fan and supporter his dad Frank Hawk With brutal honesty Tony recalls the stories of love loss bad hairdos embarrassing 80s clothes and his determination that had shaped his life As he takes a look back at his experiences with the skateboarding legends of the 70s 80s and 90s including Stacy Peralta Eddie Elguera Lance Mountain Mark Gonzalez Bob Burnquist and Colin McKay he tells the real history of skateboarding and also what the future has in store for the sport and for him
