The Morality Of Spiritualism:

The Ethics of Spiritualism Hudson Tuttle,1878 The Ethics of Spiritualism Hudson Tuttle,2018-07-27 Excerpt from The Ethics of Spiritualism A System of Moral Philosophy Founded on Evolution and the Continuity of Man's Existence Beyond the Grave Along this causeway have been waged the mighty battles of the ages fought over again in the life of every individual. It is the war between the animal side of man's nature and the spiritual. As the race has unfolded gathering higher and clearer perceptions of right truth and justice age after age the gain has been on the side of the spiritual. As in the individual the brute forces of the desires have been co-ordinated with the moral and spiritual perceptions. Because of this evolution is there conflict between the two sides of man's nature. Because he is an animal physically is there war between his physical and his spiritual tendencies. To harmonize this apparent anomaly by which the aspirations of an angel are linked with the passions of a devil has been the primary object of all systems of theology. The existence of these spiritual aspirations indicated the innate purity of the spirit and its primal perfection. That it was in fact so prone to yield to the ungoverned selfishness and lust of brutes indicated a fallen and depraved state. The dogmas growing out of this erroneous view were also dependent on equally false ideas of God. A perfect infinite and good God would not create an imperfect man. His creation would be in his own image. Man was far from perfect. His imperfection was the result of sin and wickedness. As his Creator does not wish him to sin he sins from choice. His free agency shifts the burden of responsibility from God to himself. Created perfect he has sinned by choice and became depraved through and by means of his own wickedness. He has corrupted himself. To escape the infinite consequences he must have faith in a verbal revelation and a certain scheme of redemption. Immortality is not the result of immutable laws and has no relation to the constitution of things. Men reared in this belief when they cast it aside are often unbalanced. Chakrabarti,2024-04-23 How does one's upbringing determine one's ethical and religious views? Are humans unique in this universe? Is God dead as Nietzsche declared? Is there any truth beyond scientific facts? How different religions relate to one another? What are the truths and falsehoods in various religions? Are communism and nihilism more in sync with reality than religion? How should we prioritise between self-interest and sacrifice? What should be our individual role to seek global peace? Is there a higher purpose in life than just living? The author, a scientist, scholar, innovator, entrepreneur, and philanthropist.

Moral Education for a Secular Society Phyllis Stock-Morton,1988-01-01 The current controversy over the teaching of values and the role of religion in our public schools is an important and much discussed topic Stock Morton s work represents not only a valuable historical investigation but a useful resource for the review and consideration of our present day dilemma France is the only country which has attempted to teach an official secular morality and Stock Morton s is the first study to describe and trace the development of that effort During the nineteenth century the impetus for a practical secular moral teaching arose primarily through the concern of those who sought the liberalization of French society and politics The educational dilemma faced at that time arose from the opposition of the Catholic Church to liberal government Gradually liberals and radical reached a consensus on the necessity of teaching ethics in the schools while eliminating the presence of the clergy Their solution and its philosophical basis were anchored in the Enlightenment and the Revolution but developed in the context of nineteenth century political and philosophical change In the 1880s when the republicans were able to inaugurate universal free and secular education secular ethics became a required course for all The history of morale laique is significant at a time when our own country is rife with controversy over the role of religion and the teaching of values in the schools Stock Morton s thoughtful study represents an important contribution to the literature for those concerned with these significant issues

The Future of Religion and the Religion of the Future Theodore John Rivers explores the changing relationship between technology and religion Rivers draws upon his expertise in the fields of medieval and religious history to discuss how the promotion of Christianity and monasticism in the Middle Ages began a process that has lent religious undertones to the way in which we interact with modern technology Rivers ultimately suggests that the growing presence of technology makes it a likely candidate for the next religious form competing with all the major religions in place today The Bible echo, ed. by W.
