New Perspectives on the History of Facial Hair Jennifer Evans,Alun Withey,2018-03-02 This volume brings together a range of scholars from diverse disciplinary backgrounds to re-examine the histories of facial hair and its place in discussions of gender, the military, travel and art amongst others. Chapters in the first section of the collection explore the intricate history of beard wearing and shaving including facial hair fashions in long historical perspective and the depiction of beards in portraiture. Section Two explores the shifting meanings of the moustache both as a manly symbol in the nineteenth century and also as the focus of the material culture of personal grooming. The final section of the collection charts the often complex relationship between men, women and facial hair. It explores how women used facial hair to appropriate masculine identity and how women's own hair was read as a sign of excessive and illicit sexuality. Islamic Guide to Sexual Relations

Muhammad Ibn Adam al-Kawthari, 2020-08-19. Fulfilment of sexual desire and needs are key in sustaining a harmonious marital relationship. However, in today's society, sexual boundaries are being pushed further and further, and often sexual deviance is openly practised. In such circumstances, there is a need to identify which sexual activities are permissible in Shari'ah. Islamic Guide to Sexual Relations is a serious endeavour to tackle these sensitive matters in a clear and concise manner. While being respectful and dignified in the language he employs, the author does not shy away from discussing sensitive issues. He records in thorough detail the guidance Islam provides regarding sexual encounters with one's spouse. The book covers a wide range of issues and thus answers many frequently asked questions on the topic of sexual relations. It concludes with a short chapter addressing Islamic etiquettes and practises pertaining to newlyweds on their first night. Writing Through the Body. Iraqi Responses to the War on Terror Hanan Jasim Khammas, 2023-12-21. The 2003 Iraq invasion provoked an unprecedented phenomenon in the Iraqi literary scene: fiction exceeds poetry in production, critical reception and market figures. New narrative genres concerned with stories of wars and trauma depict corporeality and sexuality in their most material sense. Writing Through the Body argues that interest in the physical indicates a new perception of corporeality and to show this, it traces a genealogy of the Iraqi body to uncover the complexity of its historical and socio-political discourses. Considering religious, social and political factors, the body is examined in three semiospheres: Iraqi society and culture before 2003, the discourse of the war on terror as a semiotic interference, and contemporary Iraqi fiction as the result of the encounter between the two. This structure shows how corporeality was interrupted by and instrumentalised in war propaganda and how new representations in fiction respond to the two spheres in conflict. Identity Destabilised Thomas Hylland Eriksen, Elisabeth Schober, 2016-10-20. The world is overheated. Too full and too fast, out of sync, contradiction-ridden and unequal. It is the age of the Anthropocene, of humanity's indelible mark upon the planet. In short, it is globalisation, but not as we know it. This collection explores social identities in today's overheated world seen from an anthropological perspective. The focus is on contradictions, tensions and paradoxes. How can an identity be stable if its border is constantly shifting? How can a community survive if it is incorporated into a huge entity? How does belonging work in new cities? And what can indigenous peoples do to retain a sense of self in a fast-moving neoliberal world? Ethnographically rich and diverse in its scope Identity Destabilised contains chapters from many parts of the world including the Philippines Israel Australia the Cape Verde Islands and Afghanistan The authors investigate how identity changes in response to contemporary forces from rapid industrialisation the enforced return of migrants and the silencing of indigenous groups to sudden population growth in boomtowns and the touristification of local culture     The Reporter Robert Sutton (reporter.),1867     Shakespeariana ,1884 With vol 6 was issued The Teachers supplement Conducted by W S Allis no 1 2 May Oct 1889     Brief van The Moustache Club of America aan Uitgeverij Thomas Rap (Jaco Groot) The Moustache Club of America (New York),Uitgeverij Thomas Rap,1970     The Black Tulip Alexandre Dumas,1895     Lakes and Rivers Charles Ottley Groom Napier,1879     Littell's Living Age ,1888     The Lancet ,1882     Art in Ornament and Dress Charles Blanc,1877     Medical news and collegiate herald ,1881     The American Philatelist ,1887     The Central Law Journal ,1877 Vols 65 96 include Central law journal s international law list     "The" Strand Magazine ,1898     The Fortnightly Review ,1900
