The Mural Painting of Teotihuacán Arthur Green Miller, 1973 The Mural Painting of Teotihuacán Arthur G. Miller, 1973 The Mural Painting of Teotihuacan, Mexico, and an Inquiry Into the Nature of Its Iconography Arthur G. Miller, 1969 A Chronological Study of the Mural Art of Teotihuacán Clara Stern Hall, 1962 Feathered Serpents and Flowering Trees Kathleen Berrin, 1988 Art, Ideology, and the City of Teotihuacan Janet Catherine Berlo, 1992

Teotihuacan Esther Pasztory, 1997 This book is the first comprehensive study and reinterpretation of the unique arts of Teotihuacan including architecture sculpture mural painting and ceramics Comparing the arts of Teotihuacan not previously judged artistic with those of other ancient civilizations Ester Pasztory demonstrates how they created and reflected the community's ideals Most people associate the pyramids of central Mexico with the Aztecs but these colossal constructions antedate the Aztecs by more than a thousand years The people of Teotihuacan who built the pyramids as part of a city of unprecedented size remain a mystery Made to Order Cynthia Conides, 2018-10-18 The ancient city of Teotihuacan North America's first metropolis flourished for nearly eight centuries in central Mexico until its demise in 650 C E Known primarily for its massive architecture and monumental wall paintings the city and its dazzling artwork inspired awe in its time and continues to do so today Made to Order the first systematic study of more than 150 painted portable artworks produced in Teotihuacan offers a unique deeply informed perspective on the cultural practices and artistic techniques of the largest urban community in pre Hispanic Mesoamerica The painted vessels Cynthia Conides considers featured here in finely reproduced full color photographs constitute nearly the entire body of material now available for analysis With attention to their origins and provenance wherever possible the author views these objects from a range of vantage points using ceramic chronologies to measure the changing characteristics and cultural significance of pictorial paintings on portable media Her approach ranging from stylistic analysis and narrative theory to theoretical perspectives on artistic exchange among artisans living and working in a thriving urban setting reveals the importance of such objects to a city where social status and the acquisition and display of its symbols were paramount This perspective is in turn grounded in new interpretations of the religious social and ritual contexts in which the objects functioned The most complete analysis of both ceramics from excavations at Teotihuacan and those held in museum collections worldwide Made to Order will become a standard source for specialists and students of pre Columbian visual culture and archaeology and a vital resource for those interested in cross cultural ceramic studies The Murals of Tepantitla, Teotihuacan Esther Pasztory, 1976 Iconography of the art of teotihuacan George Kubler, 1967 Teotihuacan Matthew Robb, 2017-09-26 Founded in the first century BCE near a set of natural springs in an otherwise dry northeastern corner of the Valley of Mexico the ancient metropolis of Teotihuacan was on a symbolic level a city of elements With a multiethnic population of perhaps one hundred thousand at its peak in 400 CE it was the cultural political economic and religious center of ancient Mesoamerica A devastating fire in the city center led to a rapid decline after the middle of the sixth century but Teotihuacan was never completely abandoned or forgotten the Aztecs revered the city and its monuments giving many of them the names we still use today Teotihuacan City of Water City of Fire examines new discoveries from the three main pyramids at the site the Sun Pyramid the Moon Pyramid and at the center of the Ciudadela complex the Feathered Serpent Pyramid which have fundamentally changed our understanding of the city's history With illustrations of the major objects from Mexico City's Museo Nacional de Antropología and from the museums and storage facilities of the Zona de Monumentos Arqueológicos de Teotihuacan along with selected works from US and European collections the catalogue examines these cultural artifacts to understand the roles that offerings of objects and programs of monumental sculpture and murals throughout the city played in the lives of Teotihuacan's citizens Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco September 30 2017 February 11 2018 Los Angeles County Museum of Art LACMA March June 2018

The Murals of Cacaxtla Claudia Lozoff Brittenham, María Teresa Uriarte, 2015-02-15 Between AD 650 and 950 a small city state in central Mexico produced dazzling murals of gods historical figures and supernatural creatures on the walls of its most important sacred and public spaces This study explores how the Cacaxtla murals constitute a sustained and local painting tradition in which generations of ancient Mexican artists patrons and audiences created a powerful statement of communal identity that still captures the imagination
