Freedom of Religion and Constitutional Law Amit Bindal,2025-06-27 This book investigates the intersection of religion and modern law It explores how secular courts encounter the religious or mythical question which is disavowed by modern institutions It questions the private public dichotomy of liberal constitutionalism which relegates religion to the private sphere It argues that in ex colonial societies like India which are foundationally and diversely religious the courts need to work through and engage with the difficulties and complexities posed by their continual encounter with the question of religion rather than re affirming the myth of separation of law and myth state and religion This work demonstrates that any other approach leads to its repression and resultant reemergence in various forms Such an approach of working through religious categories will be effective in the struggle against religious fanaticism that has seen a resurgence in contemporary times The book will be a valuable resource for students and academics working in law religious studies history and political science     Evidential Legal Reasoning Jordi Ferrer Beltrán,Carmen Vázquez,2022-05-19 This book offers a transnational perspective of evidentiary problems drawing on insights from different systems and legal traditions It avoids the isolated manner of analyzing evidence and proof within each Common Law and Civil Law tradition Instead it features contributions from leading authors in the evidentiary field from a variety of jurisdictions and offers an overview of essential topics that are of both theoretical and practical interest The collection examines evidence not only as a transnational field but in a cross disciplinary context Each chapter engages with the interdisciplinary themes cutting through the issues discussed benefiting from the expertise and experience of their diverse authors
