The Museum at the End of the World Alexia Bloch, Laurel Kendall, 2004 Anthropologists Alexia Bloch and Laurel Kendall tell the story of their journey retracing the nineteenth century Jesup North Pacific Expedition to the remote easternmost extension of Siberia and the northwest coast of North America A Geography of Russia and Its Neighbors Mikhail S. Blinnikov, 2021-01-22 Authoritative yet accessible the definitive undergraduate text on Russian geography and culture has now been thoroughly revised with current data and timely topics such as the annexation of Crimea and Sevastopol and other background for understanding Russia's 2022 invasion of Ukraine Thematic chapters provide up to date coverage of Russia's physical political cultural and economic geography Regional chapters focus on the country's major regions and the other 14 former Soviet republics Written in a lucid conversational style by a Russian born international expert the concise chapters interweave vivid descriptions of urban and rural landscapes examinations of Soviet and post Soviet life deep knowledge of environmental and conservation issues geopolitical insights engaging anecdotes and rigorous empirical data Over 200 original maps photographs and other figures are also available as PowerPoint slides at the companion website many in color New to This Edition Separate chapter on Ukraine and Crimea covering events through 2019 Timely topics the political crisis in Ukraine and annexation of Crimea and Sevastopol the return of Putin as president climate change and environmental degradation economic slowdown political shifts in the republics the role of Russian backed forces in Syria Libya and Central African Republic changes in Russia United States relations and more Thoroughly updated population economic and political data 80 new or updated figures tables and maps Pedagogical Features End of chapter review questions suggested assignments and in class exercises Within chapter vignettes about Russian places culture and history End of chapter internet resources and suggestions for further reading Companion website with all figures and maps from the book many in full color The Russia Reader Adele Marie Barker, Bruce Grant, 2010-07-12 An introduction to the history culture and politics of the world's largest country from the earliest written accounts of the Russian people to today

Words and Silences Laur Vallikivi, 2024-03-26 Words and Silences tells the story of an extraordinary group of independent Nenets reindeer herders in the northwest Russian Arctic Under socialism these nomads managed to avoid the Soviet state and its institutions of collectivization but soon after the atheist regime collapsed while some staunchly resisted many of them became fervent fundamentalist Christians By exploring differing concepts of how traditional and convert Nenets use and define words and of the meanings they ascribe to the withholding of speech Laur Vallikivi shows how a local form of global Christianity has emerged through intricate negotiations of self sociality and cosmology Moving beyond studies of modernization and globalization that have all too predictable outcomes for indigenous peoples Words and Silences invites us to view not only religious devotees but words themselves as agents of a complex and ongoing transformation Sex, Love, and Migration Alexia Bloch, 2017-12-15 Sex Love and Migration goes beyond a common narrative of women's exploitation as a feature of migration in the early twenty first century a story that features young women from poor countries who cross borders to work in low paid and often intimate labor Alexia Bloch argues that the mobility of women is marked not only by risks but also by personal and social transformation as migration fundamentally reshapes women s emotional worlds and aspirations Bloch documents how as women have crossed borders between the former Soviet Union and Turkey since the early 1990s they have forged new forms of intimacy in their households in Moldova Ukraine Belarus and Russia but also in Istanbul where they often work for years on end Sex Love and Migration takes as its subject the lives of post Soviet migrant women employed in three distinct spheres sex work the garment trade and domestic work Bloch challenges us to decouple images of women on the move from simple assumptions about danger victimization and trafficking She redirects our attention to the aspirations and lives of women who despite myriad impediments move between global capitalist centers and their home communities Religion, Morality, and Community in Post-Soviet Societies Mark D. Steinberg, Catherine

Wanner, 2008-11-13 This collection reveals the presence and power of religious belief and practice in public life after the demise of Soviet socialism Based on recent research and interdisciplinary methodologies Religion Morality and Community in Post Soviet Societies examines how religious organizations and individuals engage the changing and troubled environment in which they live which presents expanded civil freedom but much everyday uncertainty unhappiness injustice and suffering Page 4 of cover Narrative Objects Tatiana Argounova-Low, Alison K. Brown, 2025-06-25 Narrative Objects is concerned with the conversations that arise when artists scholars and museum practitioners come together with historic objects Its focus is a unique mammoth ivory model of yhyakh the annual celebration of the Sakha people in the Russian Far East which has been in the collection of the British Museum since 1867 Almost 150 years later the model was loaned to the National Arts Museum of the Republic of Sakha Yakutia for exhibition and public engagement As Sakha people revisit past histories and reconstitute cultural knowledge following decades of Soviet rule this book considers narratives generated by the return of the model which speak to wider concerns in anthropology material culture studies and history about how knowledge is both suppressed and engaged with The book also explores how art can be a focus for cultural pride how skilled practices are entwined with oral histories and how historic objects can contribute to wider processes of cultural revival The chapters draw on fieldwork and museum and archival research in Sakha Sire Paris and London Narrative Objects is particularly relevant to scholars of anthropology and museum studies as well as those with an interest in the subarctic and post Soviet states
