The Mirage In Iran:

The Mirage In Iran Abu Ameenah Bilal Philips, 1984 The Mirage in Iran Aḥmad Afghānī, 1987 Getting Ready for Nuclear-Ready Iran, 2005 Little more than a year ago the Nonproliferation Policy Education Center NPEC completed its initial analysis of Iran's nuclear program Checking Iran's Nuclear Ambitions Since then Tehran's nuclear activities and public diplomacy have only affirmed what this analysis first suggested Iran is not about to give up its effort to make nuclear fuel and thereby come within days of acquiring a nuclear bomb Iran's continued pursuit of uranium enrichment and plutonium recycling puts a premium on asking what a more confident nuclear ready Iran might confront us with and what we might do now to hedge against these threats These questions are the focus of this volume The book is divided into four parts The first presents the findings of the NPEC's working group on Iran It reflects interviews with government officials and outside specialists and the work of some 20 regional security experts whom NPEC convened in Washington to discuss the commissioned research that is contained in this book Some of this report's findings to keep Iran and others from overtly deploying nuclear weapons or leaving the Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty NPT are beginning to gain official support The U S Government the International Atomic Energy Agency IAEA and an increasing number of allies now support the idea that states that violate the NPT be held accountable for their transgressions even if they should withdraw from the treaty There also has been increased internal governmental discussion about the need to clarify what should be permitted under the rubric of peaceful nuclear energy as delineated under the NPT The remaining report recommendations which were presented in testimony before Congress in March of 2005 remain to be acted upon Getting Ready for a Nuclear-ready Iran Henry D. Sokolski, Patrick Clawson, 2005 Mirage in Iran Dr. Ahmad-Al-Afghani, A. R. M. Zarook, Iran's Nuclear Ambitions Shahram Chubin, 2006 Iran is aggressively seeking nuclear technology that could be used for making weapons and its quest has set off alarms throughout the world This widespread concern stems in part from Iran's uncertain intentions and recent history Will it remain a revolutionary power determined to subvert its Sunni Arab neighbors destroy Israel and spread theocratic government to other lands Or would an Iran with nuclear weapons merely defend its territory from foreign aggression and live in peace with its neighbors Are the country's leaders and society willing to negotiate limits on nuclear capability and normalize relations with the West or will they resist accommodation Iran's Nuclear Ambitions provides a rare balanced look into the motivations perceptions and domestic politics swirling around Iran Shahram Chubin an Iranian born security expert details the recent history of Iran's nuclear program and diplomacy He argues that the central problem is not nuclear technology but rather Iran's behavior as a revolutionary state with ambitions that collide with the interests of its neighbors and the West Topics include The view from Tehran Iran's nuclear energy rationale domestic politics and decisionmaking Sources of concern including the nature of Iran's regime its nuclear infrastructure missile development and terrorism Iran's negotiating strategy The international response Iran and regional security including the U S as a threat and ReOrienting the Sasanians Khodadad Rezakhani, 2017-03-15 A narrative history of Central Asia after the Greek dynasties and before Islam. Central Asia is commonly imagined as the marginal land on the periphery of Chinese and Middle Eastern civilisations. At best it is understood as a series of disconnected areas that served as stop overs along the Silk Road. However in the mediaeval period this region rose to prominence and importance as one of the centres of Persian Islamic culture from the Seljuks to the Mongols and Timur. Khodadad Rezakhani tells the back story of this rise to prominence, the story of the famed Kushans and mysterious Asian Huns and their role in shaping both the Sasanian Empire and the rest of the Middle East. Contextualises Persian history in relation to the history of Central Asia. Extends the concept of late antiquity further east than is usually done. Surveys the history of Iran and Central Asia between 200 and 800 bc and contextualises the rise of Islam in both regions.

The Crisis of the Iranian State Ahmed Hashim, 1995 The Islamic Republic of Iran is facing an existential crisis. Increasingly unpopular with its own people, isolated and friendless abroad, it is engaged in a struggle for survival. Nevertheless, as of the mid 1990s, Iran's weaknesses and turmoil have elicited little commentary from the outside world. This study looks at the acute threats and severe problems facing the rulers of Iran in the 1990s. It argues that the Republic entered the latter half of the 1990s faced with a conjunction of acute pressures threatening its political legitimacy, domestic stability and national security.
