Perkins, 2014-07-15 In this study Merle L Perkins links individual freedom with national power in offering a close reading of Jean Jacques Rousseau s major texts He sees in Rousseau s thought an extreme tension and interdependence between the idiosyncrasy of nonconforming character and an almost obsessive concern with the external pressures operating on the state      The Century of Science Frank Sherwood Taylor, 1941      David Hartley and the Perfectibility of Man Ian Christopher Douglas, 1989      Rousseau and Radical Democracy Kevin Inston, 2010-06-16 Rousseau and Radical Democracy presents the first comprehensive examination of Rousseau s founding role in and continuing relevance for recent and influential theories of democracy Kevin Inston demonstrates the actuality of Rousseau s thinking through an analysis of his deep connection with the groundbreaking work of contemporary European thinkers including Lefort Laclau and Mouffe The book affirms Rousseau s centrality for current debates in democratic thought by showing how contrary to common assumptions his writings emphasise the openness and difference necessary for a dynamic mode of democracy committed to extending the principles of freedom and equality By connecting Rousseau s philosophy with present day thinking Inston stresses the theoretical consistency of his political thought against those influential deconstructive readings of his work by thinkers such as Derrida and De Man This book argues that the ambiguities and tensions in Rousseau actually form part of the logic of Rousseau s rigorous reflection on democracy that accepts the inherent incompleteness and uncertainty of any political project as the condition of freedom and change      The Thomistic Concept of Person and Some of Its Social Implications James Henry Hoban, 1939      The Noise Robert Duncan, 1984 This study of contemporary culture discusses how rock n roll reveals a unique understanding of attitudes in America and includes interviews with politicians rockers the media a Catholic theologian and others      The Menorah , 1905      Calcutta Review , 1929
