their processes and products attending Catholic and Candomblé services and finally creating a comprehensive book governed by a deep understanding of the artists themselves Beginning with Edival Rosas who carves monumental baroque statues for churches and ending with Francisco Santos who paints images of the gods for Candomblé terreiros the book displays the diversity of Brazilian artistic techniques and religious interpretations Glassie and Shukla enhance their findings with comparisons from art and religion in the United States Nigeria Portugal Turkey India Bangladesh and Japan and gesture toward an encompassing theology of power and beauty that brings unity into the spiritual art of the world Appendix to
