Songs of Wedlock (Classic Reprint) T. A. Daly,2015-07-11 Excerpt from Songs of Wedlock When sick at heart and weary of my kind And of the day long traffic I would find The peace and healing touch of solitude I envy no lone eremite who stands Sealed up with silence on the desert sands Where never murmurs of the world intrude I know a sweeter place a holier bower For the enshrining of the quiet hour Mine is a solitude that two may share A lamp lit table with an easy chair At either end a friendly book for each And save for clock ticks pulsing in the room Sweet silence but a silence that may bloom At her will or at mine to loving speech This is the dearest place the holiest bower For the enshrining of the quiet hour About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
