International Law Reports Elihu Lauterpacht, C. J. Greenwood, A. G. Oppenheimer, 2003-03-27 Includes decisions of the Canadian courts in Burns Suresh Ahani and Bouzari on torture terrorism and the death penalty Application of Most-Favoured-Nation Clauses by Investor-State Arbitral Tribunals Tanjina Sharmin, 2020-04-01 This book comprehensively examines various issues regarding the scope of Most Favoured Nation MFN Clauses in International Investment Agreements IIAs and addresses the reform interpretation and enforcement of IIAs with a specific focus on the MFN clause The book begins with a study of the history and evolution of the MFN It then presents a substantive analysis focusing on the drafting style and how it affects the scope of the MFN rules of interpretation and arbitral case law on the scope of the MFN procedural prerequisites to arbitration and jurisdiction of arbitral tribunals and the implications of adopting an expansive approach to the MFN clause The book s argument centres on the need for arbitral tribunals to interpret the MFN in a manner that reflects the expressed intent of the parties This requires taking into consideration the text of the MFN its purpose and the overall context of the IIA rather than relying on values and assumptions that have nothing to do with the original intent of the parties In making this argument the book draws on Articles 31 and 32 of the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties and other interpretative rules What sets the book apart is its comprehensive coverage of issues concerning the interpretation and application of the MFN in IIAs At the same time it addresses issues in connection with an expansive interpretation of MFN clauses as well as concerns regarding the legitimacy crisis in investor state arbitration Accordingly it contributes to future Investor State Dispute Settlement ISDS reform while also offering a wealth of theoretical and practical insights for future treaty drafters arbitrators and policymakers Comanchero Trail Jack Dakota, 2017-04-01 When Dean Kittredge is taken on as a hired gun by the Rafter W the owner s wilful granddaughter Miss Trashy is only the first of his worries He soon finds himself up against the notorious El Serpiente and his gang of Comanchero gunmen Jensen Crudace the sinister land and cattle agent is intent on using the Comancheros to gain control of the territory Together Kittredge and ranch foreman Tad Sherman are involved in a desperate quest to track El Serpiente to his hidden base in the heart of a distant mesa Will they succeed in stopping the ruthless gunmen International Investment Law: A Changing Landscape A Companion Volume to International Investment Perspectives OECD, 2005-09-06 Presents four studies on international investment law one on transparency one on the fair and equitable treatment standard one on indirect expropriation and the right to regulate and one on most favoured nation treatment Corporate and Employment Perspectives in a Global Business Environment Boel Flodgren, 2006-01-01 In today s society the foreground of deliberation in politics legislation judicial decisions even war is increasingly experienced by citizens as a mask for the working out of norms and institutions the precise nature of which eludes us We are accustomed to looking behind every news item often feeling that the real decisions are made by other people than those who seem to be in power or that events are merely driven by facts on the ground or unconscious motives To consider global business activity and especially employment issues in this experiential context is a daring and provocative challenge one which was taken up in August 2004 under the sponsorship of the Department of Business Law at Lund University This remarkable book presents a rich sampling of what was said at that unique symposium among a group of notable authorities in law business and international relations The seventeen authors whose contributions appear in this book bring their lucid perspectives to bear on the vital and complex issues that emerge from the contemplation of the territory where the rule of law encounters global business interests These perspectives encompass such factors as the following the role of the expert global extension of the nation state model the effect of development aid on legal systems in developing countries WTO rules and dispute settlement the most favoured nation MFN principle efforts to harmonise contract law international taxation multinational corporate behaviour the search for fair labour standards the clash of economic law and labour law corporate social responsibility and alternative dispute resolution in international trade Underlying all the essays is the insight that although there is no established global law and no global law giver yet there is no national law that is not deeply affected by the globalisation of markets Collectively these authors provide a deeper and truer vision of the real global legal regime that is rapidly taking shape The powerful impetus this book provides toward an understanding of actually developing global governance and global justice will be of great value to all who wish to see a balance struck among economic environmental and social interests in our world Magazine of Western History William Williams,J.
