Parliament. House of Commons,1889 Blind Spots G.V. Loewen,2019-08 History has replaced morality Not in point to point substitution but in that something could be timeless either in principle or practice It s likely that the old anxiety concerning one s fate is now itself a mask It is interesting to imagine that a metaphysical source of angst can be more comforting than a quotidian one We are most intolerant of anyone who seeks to be as we are and have what we have yet this too remains somehow a throwback to the previous age of caste child chattel and misogyny so the soteriological sensibility remains compelling It is if anything a much larger mystery than it was before Now and for the first time we must save ourselves
