Healing Historical Trauma in South Korean Film and Literature Chungmoo Choi, 2020-12-20 Through South Korean filmic and literary texts, this book explores affect and ethics in the healing of historical trauma as alternatives to the measures of transitional justice in want of national unity. Historians and legal practitioners who deal with transitional justice agree that the relationship between historiography and justice seeking is contested. This book reckons with this question of how much truth telling from a violent past will lead to healing, forgiving, forgetting and finally overcoming resentment. Nuanced interpretations of South Korean filmic and literary texts are featured, including Park Chan-wook's Oldboy, Bong Joon-ho's Mother and literary texts of Han Kang and Choe Yun, whilst also engaging the ethical and political philosophy of Levinas, Hannah Arendt and others. Also offered is new and extensive research into the hitherto hidden history of thousands of North Korean war orphans who were sent to Eastern European countries for care. Grappling with the evils of history, the films and novels examined herein find their ultimate themes in compassion, hospitality, humility and solidarity of the wounded. Healing Historical Trauma in South Korean Film and Literature will appeal to students and scholars of film, comparative literature, cultural studies and Korean studies more broadly. Oxford Weather and Climate Since 1767 Stephen Burt, Tim Burt, 2019 The Radcliffe Observatory possesses the longest continuous series of single site weather records in the British Isles and one of the longest in the world. The book comprises weather commentaries by month and season, a chronology of notable weather events in Oxford since the 17th Century, an analysis of climate change in Oxford over two centuries. Poems, songs and miscellaneous pieces Henry Scott Riddell, 1847 Meteorology and Climatology of the Great Valleys and Foothills of California, for from Fifteen to Thirty-six Years California.
