 administration Those who study or practice public management know full well the difficulties faced by administrators of complex bureaucratic systems What they don t know is why some jobs in the public sector are harder than others and how good managers cope with those jobs Drawing on leadership theory and social psychology Erwin Hargrove and John Glidewell provide the first systematic analysis of the factors that determine the inherent difficulty of public management jobs and of the coping strategies employed by successful managers To test their argument Hargrove and Glidewell focus on those jobs fraught with extreme difficulties impossible jobs What differentiates impossible from possible jobs are 1 the publicly perceived legitimacy of the commissioner s clientele 2 the intensity of the conflict among the agency s constituencies 3 the public s confidence in the authority of the commissioner s profession and 4 the strength of the agency s myth or long term idealistic goal Hargrove and Glidewell flesh out their analysis with six case studies that focus on the roles played by leaders of specific agencies Each essay summarizes the institutional strengths and weaknesses specifies what makes the job impossible and then compares the skills and strategies that incumbents have employed in coping with such jobs Readers will come away with a thorough understanding of the conflicting social psychological and political forces that act on commissioners in impossible jobs

Job Hunter's Sourcebook Michelle LeCompte,1992-12 Western Primitivism Aidan Campbell,1997 It is an old racist adage that Africans have just come down from the trees So why are young Europeans and Americans climbing back up them Primitivism has always had a place in flaming the West s conception of Africa whether in the form of the Noble Savage or crazed cults such as the Mau Mau If not everyone is quite ready to live in a tree house the primitivism viewpoint has still made major inroads into modern society NGO volunteers are central to the way the world relates to Africa these days Why are these educated and motivated young people from the West predisposed to defining Africans ethnically Privileging the Primitive argues that the popularity of modern primitivism in the West is highly relevant to the current recasting of African ethnicity Some scholars argue that ethnicity is a relapse into primordialism while others hold it be a more modern fluid entity The notion that ethnicity can be a moral code is growing Historians argue over whether ethnicity is purely a product of African culture a political category invented by colonial administrators or a hybrid that mixes the two Aidan Campbell locates ethnicity s derivation in our changing perceptions of Western society and in particular in the rehabilitation of the West s jaded political institutions
