Suspended Sentences:

Suspended Prison Sentences Jakub Drápal,Krzysztof Krajewski,Milena Tripković,2026-02-19 This book uncovers the controversies around the suspended prison sentence its main aims and features and the role that it occupies within the wider criminal justice context Suspended prison sentences were introduced in Central and Eastern European CEE states as alternatives to short prison sentences although they were initially generally conceived of as exceptional penal tools over time they became the most imposed and dominant penal sanctions and in that sense a defining feature of criminal justice systems in the region The book provides a rich source of information about the development and features of suspended sentences in eight CEE countries a topic that although of great importance due to their frequency has received only scant academic attention Employing a legal socio legal and criminological approach it achieves this goal through individual chapters on eight countries Czechia Estonia Hungary Poland Romania the Russian Federation Serbia and Slovenia and also through three general chapters which outline the main specificity of the region as a whole but also present nuances between different countries The book will be of interest to a wide variety of academic researchers who study crime punishment and the penal system and especially to those interested in sentencing Given the huge discrepancy in the frequency of use of this sanction in CEE countries and the frequency of use of parole in contemporary practice the work provides unique insights into the potential and desirability of its wider use particularly due to the minimal supervision that it requires in examined countries The book therefore seeks to critically inform current thinking on the value and appropriateness of particular forms of sanctions in responding to crime     The Soviet System of Justice: Figures and Policy Ger P. van den Berg,2024-09-02

Punishment and Sentencing Mirko Bagaric,2025-02-03 First published in 2001 Punishment and Sentencing provides a way of introducing principle into sentencing This is done by bridging the gap between the philosophical justification for punishment and sentencing law and practice In terms of the interests it deals with sentencing is the most important area of law Ironically it is also arguably the least coherent Nearly three decades ago sentencing was described as a wasteland in the law Unfortunately little has changed in that time Sentencing decisions are often made in accordance with the idiosyncratic sentiments of sentencers rather than on the basis of binding rules and principles Part A of the book provides an overview of current sentencing law and practice Part B critically examines the main contemporary theories of punishment Part C discusses the implications that this has for the sentencing process It is a useful text for students of criminology law and philosophy courses as well as a valuable resource for criminal law practitioners     Blackstone's Criminal Practice Peter Murphy,1995     Report of the Board of State Commissioners for the General Supervision of Charitable, Penal, Pauper, and Reformatory Institutions Michigan.
