Sustaining And Improving Learning Communities:

Sustaining and Improving Learning Communities Jodi Levine Laufgraben,Nancy S. Shapiro,2004-06-28 Sustaining and Improving Learning Communities is the long awaited follow up to the groundbreaking book Creating Learning Communities The authors continue their exploration of the concept of learning communities as an innovation in undergraduate curricular instruction that allow students to actively participate in their own education and deepen and diversify their college experience Jodi Levine Laufgraben and Nancy S Shapiro address a wide range of topics such as campus culture for sustaining learning communities learning communities and the curriculum pedagogies and faculty development

Sustainable Improvement Coral Mitchell,Larry Sickney,2019-02-11 Drawing on two decades of research into the nature of schools as learning communities the authors build on a prior model of learning communities that integrated three domains of capacity personal interpersonal and organizational In this text the authors move the capacity building model into practice and elaborate a theory of learning communities This book situates learning communities in living systems and ecological perspectives The fundamental premise is that all of human life and human activity is part of a deep planetary ecology of which mutuality and interdependence are cornerstone properties learning and renewal are key processes and emergent networks are foundational structures The text juxtaposes these conceptions with educational practices in order to understand what makes practice different in learning community schools The authors argue that sustainable educational improvement emerges from a reciprocal process of building people who are constantly learning building commitments to authentic learning and building schools with a relentless focus on learning The authors conclude that building a sustainable learning community requires a profound shift in how learning is understood discussed valued enabled and expressed This shift they argue is essential as schools face the challenges and opportunities in the knowledge society Bringing Your Learning Community to Life Stephen S. Kaagan,Linda Headley,2010-02-09 This do it yourself guide offers specific tasks exercises and brief case studies to guide educators step by step through the process of establishing a PLC in nine to twelve months
