Svengalis Web The Alien Enchanter In Modern Culture:

Svengali's Web Daniel Pick,2000-01-01 This book investigates the enduring use of his image in modern culture and politics exploring the origins and impact of Svengali and his helplessly mesmerised female victim Trilby in an age already rife with discussions of race covert persuasion and the unconscious mind BOOK JACKET The Spaces of the Modern City

Gyan Prakash, Kevin M. Kruse, 2008-02-24 It historicizes the contemporary discussion of urbanism highlighting the local and global breadth of the city landscape This interdisciplinary collection examines how the city develops in the interactions of space and imagination The essays focus on issues such as street design in Vienna the motion picture industry in Los Angeles architecture in Marseilles and Algiers and the kaleidoscopic paradox of post apartheid Johannesburg They explore the nature of spatial politics examining the disparate worlds of eighteenth century Baghdad nineteenth century Morelia They also show the meaning of everyday spaces to urban life illuminating issues such as crime in metropolitan London youth culture in Dakar memory projects in Tokyo and Bombay cinema Empire and the Gothic A. Smith, W. Hughes, 2002-12-12 This innovative volume considers the relationship between the Gothic and theories of Post Colonialism Contributors explore how writers such as Salman Rushdie Arunhati Roy and Ruth Praver Jhabvala use the Gothic for postcolonial ends Post Colonial theory is applied to earlier Gothic narratives in order to re examine the ostensibly colonialist writings of William Beckford Charlotte Dacre H Rider Haggard and Bram Stoker Contributors include Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak David Punter and Neil Cornwell

The Racialization of the Occult in Nineteenth Century British Literature John Bliss, 2023-07-19 This book focuses on the representation of the practitioner of the occult in mid to late nineteenth century British literature The occult was a source of emotional support and scientific curiosity during this time of change and uncertainty because it seemed to offer answers to both spiritual and scientific questions through measurable albeit unconventional means However the occult was also viewed as a threat to British society an assault on its values and a fundamental danger to emerging scientific enterprise By examining the ways in which the occult and its practitioners are represented in British novels from 1850 1900 this book traces the ways that the novels commented on participated in and contributed to the racialization of the occult that occurred throughout the nineteenth century in Britain The representations of the occult characters in these novels interpreted and transmitted the social political economic and scientific discourses about race in the nineteenth century to the reading public as well as participating in the discourse surrounding race and the occult Popular Literature, Authorship and the Occult in Late Victorian Britain Andrew McCann, 2014-07-17 A study of the representation of the occult in late Victorian popular fiction exploring different perceptions of authorship and creativity Literature, Technology and Magical Thinking, 1880-1920

Pamela Thurschwell, 2001-07-05 In this 2001 book Pamela Thurschwell examines the intersection of literary culture the occult and new technology at the fin de siècle Thurschwell argues that technologies began suffusing the public imagination from the mid nineteenth century on they seemed to support the claims of spiritualist mediums Talking to the dead and talking on the phone both held out the promise of previously unimaginable contact between people both seemed to involve magical thinking Thurschwell looks at the ways in which psychical research the scientific study of the occult is reflected in the writings of such authors as Henry James George du Maurier and Oscar Wilde and in the foundations of psychoanalysis This study offers provocative interpretations of fin de siècle literary and scientific culture in relation to psychoanalysis queer theory and cultural history

Sound Effects: The Object Voice in Fiction, 2015-09-01 Sound Effects combines literary criticism and psychoanalytic theory in eleven original articles which explore the potential of the object voice as an analytic tool to approach fiction Alongside the gaze the voice is Jacques Lacan's original addition to the set of partial objects of classical psychoanalysis and has only recently been theorised by Mladen Dolar in A Voice and Nothing More 2006 With notable exceptions like Garrett Stewart's Reading Voices 1990 the sonorous element in fiction has received little scholarly attention in comparison with poetry and drama Sound Effects is a contribution to the burgeoning field of sound studies and sets out to fill this gap through selective readings of English and American fiction of the last two hundred years Contributors Fred Botting Natalja Chestopalova Mladen Dolar Matt Foley Alex Hope Phillip Mahoney Sylvia Mieszkowski Jorge Sacido Romero Marcin Stawiarski Garrett Stewart Peter Weise and Bruce Wyse

Multiculturalism, Globalization, and Antisemitism Efraim Sicher, 2009 Discusses multiculturalism as involving the redefinition of a nation and a search for national identity but notes that multiculturalism is not necessarily the cause of the recent upsurge in antisemitism in Britain Stresses the persistence of cultural stereotypes e.g. Shylock Fagin and Svengali in the media including in reporting on sports events British Jews are caught between two hostile forces a coalition of militant Islamists and leftist anti-Western anti-imperialists who demonize Israel and a general British resentment of foreigners which sometimes encompasses Jews Anti-Zionist propaganda and anti-Israel boycotts are espoused by Muslims and leftists including on the campuses Anti-Zionism often slips into anti-Judaism by targeting British Jews The British media tend to be anti-Israel to such an extent that this stance is unassailable Concludes that the open society has encouraged a resurgence of older racial anti-Jewish discourse and that there is little new about the new antisemitism which spreads conspiracy theories about Jews in regard to recent events such as 9/11

Nineteenth-century Literature, 2003 The Literary Review, 2000 Forging Modern Jewish Identities Michael Berkowitz, Susan L. Tananbaum, Sam W. Bloom, 2003 Forging Modern Jewish Identities illuminates facets of modern Jewish identity through engagement with diverse historical moments political and social currents and literature as an aspect of popular culture This volume is distinctive and it can be enjoyed by the general reader as well as having potential as a teaching tool as the experience of Jewry in the United States Britain Central and Western Europe Russia and the Soviet Union is addressed by experts in each of these fields Its introduction places the volume within the burgeoning genre of anthologies that constitutes a significant but little noticed development in Jewish and ethnic national historiography Cutting across disciplinary and national boundaries the articles highlight Jewry's encounter with modernity from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth centuries While acknowledging the power of acculturation each of the contributions details how Jews transformed themselves individually and communally while reshaping notions of Jewish community and what it means to be a Jew in the modern world

Strange Duets Kim Marra,2006-12 Autocratic male impresarios increasingly dominated the American stage between 1865 and 1914 Many rose from poor immigrant roots and built their own careers by making huge stars out of undiscovered Anglo identified actresses Reflecting the antics of self made industrial empire builders and independent challenging New Women these theatrical potentates and their proteges gained a level of wealth and celebrity comparable to that of Hollywood stars today In her engaging and provocative Strange Duets Kim Marra spotlights three passionate impresario actress relationships of exceptional duration that encapsulated the social tensions of the day and strongly influenced the theatre of the twentieth century Augustin Daly and Ada Rehan Charles Frohman and Maude Adams and David Belasco and Mrs Leslie Carter reigned over legitimate Broadway theatre the venue of greatest social cachet for the monied classes Unlike impresarios and actresses in vaudeville and burlesque they produced full length spoken drama that involved special rigors of training and rehearsal to sustain a character's emotional truth as well as a high level of physical athleticism and endurance Their efforts compelled fascination at a time when most people believed women's emotions were seated primarily in the reproductive organs and thus were fundamentally embodied and sexual in nature While the impresario ostensibly exercised full control over his leading lady showing fashionable audiences that the exciting but unruly New Woman could be both tamed and enjoyed she acquired a power of her own that could bring him to his knees Kim Marra combines methods of cultural gender and sexuality studies with theatre history to explore the vexed mutual dependency between these status seeking Svengalis and their alternately willing and resistant leading ladies She illuminates how their on and off stage performances highly charged in this Darwinian era with racial as well as gender sexual and class dynamics tapped into the contradictory fantasies and aspirations of their audiences Played out against a backdrop of enormous cultural and institutional transformation the volatile romance of Daly and Rehan closeted homosexuality of Frohman and Adams and carnal expiations of Belasco and Carter produced strange duets indeed Victorian Newsletter

,2000 Psychoanalysis, Fascism, Fundamentalism Julia Borossa,Ivan Ward,2009 This is a study of the contribution of psychoanalysis to an understanding of social and political issues The Jewish Quarterly ,2000 Victorian Women and the Theatre of Trance Amy Lehman,2009-10-19 Spiritualists in the nineteenth century spoke of the Borderland a shadowy threshold where the living communed with the dead and where those in the material realm could receive comfort or advice from another world The skilled performances of mostly female actors and performers made the Borderland a theatre of sorts in which dramas of revelation and recognition were produced in the forms of seances trances and spiritualist lectures This book examines some of the most fascinating American and British actresses of the Victorian era whose performances fairly mesmerized their audiences of amused skeptics and ardent believers It also focuses on the transformative possibilities of the

spiritualist theatre revealing how the performances allowed Victorian women to speak act and create outside the boundaries of their restricted social and psychological roles

The Occult Tradition David S. Katz, 2005 Despite the growth of modern science and a general disenchantment of the world the occult tradition has evolved in the West manifesting itself in a variety of forms This book describes the growth and meandering path of the occult tradition over the past 500 years showing how the esoteric world view fits together

Neurology and Literature, 1860-1920 Anne Stiles, 2007-09-28 The essays in this collection demonstrate how late Victorian and Edwardian neurology and fiction shared common philosophical concerns and rhetorical strategies Between 1860 and 1920 neurologists like Silas Weir Mitchell and Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote moving literature while novelists like H G Wells and Wilkie Collins used fiction to dramatize neurological discoveries and their consequences These six decades witnessed unprecedented interdisciplinary collaboration between scientists and artists who found common ground in their shared ambivalence towards the prevailing intellectual climate of biological determinism

Jewish Culture and History, 2001 The Many Faces of Evolution in Europe, C. 1860-1914 Patrick Dassen, M. G. Kemperink, 2005 The idea that the world not only of man but also of nature was subject to a continuous process of change has taken strong root since the beginning of the nineteenth century In 1859 Charles Darwin demonstrated that these changes were the result of immutable eternal laws although everything was subject to change it was only in accordance with these laws from the second half of the nineteenth century down to the First World War this vision of change and determination was interpreted in many different ways both pessimistically and optimistically It is striking that a fear of degeneration often went hand in hand with a belief in an upward evolutionary process and was not confined to any particular political spectrum This volume number XIV in the series contains the papers presented at a workshop on the reception and interpretation of the theory of evolution organised by the editors in April 2003 It covers the many often irreconcilable faces of the theory of evolution concerning not only the concrete substantive interpretation but also the many different fields of late nineteenth century thought by concentrating on cultural life in the broadest sense political social scientific and artistic both literature and the visual arts This volume illustrates the versatility of the concept of evolution and of degeneration as well with the emphasis on the Netherlands It not only presents the contradictions and many sidedness of the post Darwinian world but also the continuity with the world before 1860 Moreover it reveals one clear co ordinating theme namely that the theory of evolution was used as justification for many different ideologies and practices
