Pastor and teacher Claude Atcho offers a theological approach to 10 seminal texts of 20th century African American literature. Each chapter takes up a theological category for inquiry through a close literary reading and theological reflection on a primary literary text from Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man and Richard Wright's Native Son to Zora Neale Hurston's Moses Man of the Mountain and James Baldwin's Go Tell It on the Mountain. The book includes end of chapter discussion questions. Reading Black Books helps readers of all backgrounds learn from the contours of Christian faith formed and forged by Black stories and it spurs continued conversations about racial justice in the church. It demonstrates that reading about Black experience as shown in the literature of great African American writers can guide us toward sharper theological thinking and
