Acting Hollywood Style Foster Hirsch,1996-09 Acting Hollywood Style is a lively fresh exploration of the art of screen acting as it has developed in Hollywood films for close to seven decades Foster Hirsch has written 14 books on theatre and film subjects

The Night of the Hunter Jeffrey Couchman,2009-02-12 In the first major study of the long lost first draft screenplay by James Agee Jeffrey Couchman confronts a fifty year controversy about the authorship of the film He explores many levels of artistic convergence between novelist and director director and actor and cinematic form and audience expectations The talents that clashed or came together along the road from book to movie created a film of rich stylistic contradiction Combining biographical and historical analysis with a critical study of both the novel and the film Couchman makes the case that this initially overlooked cinematic gem is a prismatic work that continually reveals new aspects of itself

BOOK JACKET Silent Film Performers Roy Liebman,1996 Provides biographical and career data for each listed performer an overview of published books and articles about or written by the performer and a list of archival materials including photographs and stills letters and scrapbooks Acting Male Dennis Bingham,1994 Drawing parallels between acting and star making and such concepts of gender identity as masquerade and role playing Dennis Bingham points out tensions between the mask of masculinity and the naturalness designed to obscure it

Grand Design--Hollywood as a Modern Business Enterprise, 1930-1939 Tino Balio,1993 Celebrated as Hollywood's greatest year 1939 has often been considered the apex of the studio system and the movies it produced including Gone with the Wind The Wizard of Oz Stagecoach Mr Smith Goes to Washington and so many other memorable pictures It was a time when the studios exercised nearly absolute control over their product and won government sanction for the informal oligopoly that had sprung up in previous decades In short the film industry became a modern business enterprise rationalized from planning through assembly line manufacture to exhibition in studio owned theater chains Even community reception and the public personas of such great stars as Bette Davis Clark Gable and Humphrey Bogart were subject to studio influence In this fifth volume of the award winning History of the American Cinema Tino Balio examines every aspect of the filmmaking and film exhibition system as it matured during the Depression era He discusses the Hollywood studios major minor and poverty row in relation to their all powerful and little understood front offices in New York the prevailing exhibition and advertising practices the star system and the key trends that dominated Hollywood production prestige pictures musicals women's films comedies social problem films and horror pictures A number of distinguished guest contributors fill out the picture with analyses of censorship and the emergence of the Production Code Richard Maltby technology and the classical Hollywood style David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson the

B Film Brian Taves documentary Charles Wolfe and the avant garde Jan Christopher Horak      William Wyler, a Guide to References and Resources Sharon Kern, 1984      Issues in Feminist Film Criticism Patricia Erens, 1990 This anthology makes it abundantly clear that feminist film criticism is flourishing and has developed dramatically since its inception in the early 1970s Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism Erens brings together a wide variety of writings and methodologies by US and British feminist film scholars The twenty seven essays represent some of the most influential work on Hollywood film women's cinema and documentary filmmaking to appear during the past decade and beyond Contributors include Lucie Arbuthnot Linda Artel Pam Cook Teresa de Lauretis Mary Ann Doane Elizabeth Ellsworth Lucy Fischer Jane Gaines Mary C Gentile Bette Gordon Florence Jacobowitz Claire Johnston E Ann Kaplan Annette Kuhn Julia Lesage Judith Mayne Sonya Michel Tania Modleski Laura Mulvey B Ruby Rich Gail Seneca Kaja Silverman Lori Spring Jackie Stacey Maureen Turim Diane Waldman Susan Wengraf Linda Williams and Robin Wood      Differences, 2001      The Film Anthologies Index Stephen E. Bowles, 1994-10 The Film Anthologies Index is a bibliographical resource essential to any person or institution interested in the study of film No publication or database currently indexes the contents of these important anthologies There are over 600 anthologies by both multiple and single authors in English that have been published through 1991 These anthologies contain over 10 000 stand alone pieces that 1 reprint articles from their original source 2 select excerpts from book length publications and 3 include original essays appearing only in a specialized anthology Without The Film Anthologies Index the researcher would have no guide to the valuable contents between the covers of these anthologies Much more than just a guide to the contents of anthologies the main section consists of 6 563 numbered entries that alphabetically list by author the contents of each piece found in the anthologies You could find for example all pieces written by a particular author which have appeared in the anthologies Additionally every author entry refers the user to all the anthologized sources which contain each specific piece For example Robert Warshow's landmark essay on Movie Chronicle The Westerner can be found in 9 different anthologies or that selected essays by Sergei Einstein appear in over 50 separate anthologies Without The Film Anthologies Index there would be no way to systematically locate these buried treasures The final section of The Film Anthologies Index consists of an extensive listing of all film titles individual names specific genres countries periods studios etc as well as all key words and phrases that appear in the titles of the included pieces There are approximately 7000 topics covered in this section The user friendly layout of this reference source makes it both a comprehensive resource for everyone from the casual movie goer who wants a deeper understanding of the medium to the dedicated film scholar who is pursuing material on      Movies, a Language in Light Richard L. Stromgren, Martin F.
