A Companion to the War Film Douglas A. Cunningham, John C. Nelson, 2016-05-31 A Companion to the War Film contains 27 original essays that examine all aspects of the genre from the traditional war film to the new global nature of conflicts and the diverse formats that war stories assume in today's digital culture. Includes new works from experienced and emerging scholars that expand the scope of the genre by applying fresh theoretical approaches and archival resources to the study of the war film. Moves beyond the limited confines of the combat film to cover home front films, international and foreign language films and a range of conflicts and time periods. Addresses complex questions of gender, race, forced internment, international terrorism and war protest in films such as Full Metal Jacket, Good Kill, Grace is Gone, Gran Torino, The Messenger, Snow Falling on Cedars, So Proudly We Hail, Tae Guk Gi, The Brotherhood of War, Tender Comrade and Zero Dark Thirty. Provides a nuanced vision of war film that brings the genre firmly into the 21st Century and points the way for exciting future scholarship.

Gettysburg's Unknown Soldier Mark H. Dunkelman, 1999-04-30 He was found dead on the battlefield at Gettysburg, an unknown soldier with nothing to identify him but an ambrotype of his three children clutched in his fingers. With the photograph as the single sad clue to his identity a publicity campaign to locate his family swept the North. Within a month the bereaved widow and children were located in Portville, New York and the devoted father was revealed to be Sergeant Amos Humiston of the 154th New York Volunteers. Using many previously untapped sources this book tells the tale of 19th century war sentiment and popular culture in greater detail than ever before. The Humiston story touched deep emotions in Civil War America and inspired a flood of heartfelt prose, poetry and song. Amid a vast outpouring of public sympathy a charitable drive evolved to assist the bereft family. At the end of the war the crusade was expanded to establish a home at Gettysburg for orphans of deceased soldiers. The first residents of the institution were Amos Humiston's widow.

Philinda and her three children Franklin Alice and Frederick In this extensive account a full portrait emerges of Amos Humiston the loving husband and father destined to be remembered for his death tableau and his family the widow and orphans who struggled for the rest of their lives with celebrity born of tragedy    Berlitz, 1999 Guide to Cruising and Cruise Ships Douglas Ward,Berlitz Guides,1998-11 Written by an internationally celebrated cruise expert this recognized bible of the cruise industry offers descriptions information and recommendations for every imaginable type of cruise ship    The
