Starvation Heights:

Starvation Heights Gregg Olsen, 2012-10-04 In 1911 two wealthy British heiresses Claire and Dora Williamson came to a sanitorium in the forests of the Pacific Northwest to undergo the revolutionary fasting treatment of Dr Linda Burfield Hazzard. It was supposed to be a holiday for the two sisters. But within a month of arriving at what the locals called Starvation Heights the women were emaciated shadows of their former selves waiting for death. They were not the first victims of Linda Hazzard a quack doctor of extraordinary evil and greed who would stop at nothing short of murder to achieve her ambitions. As their jewelry disappeared and forged bank drafts began transferring their wealth to Hazzard's accounts Dora Williamson sent a last desperate plea to a friend in Australia begging her to save them from the brutal treatments and lonely isolation of Starvation Heights. In this true story a haunting saga of medical murder set in an era of steamships and gaslights Gregg Olsen reveals one of the most unusual and disturbing criminal cases in American history.

Starvation Heights Everest Media, 2022-04-26T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The Empress Hotel in Victoria British Columbia was the setting for the story. It was a world bustling and tranquil with a musky sweet smelling blend of extremes. The sisters Dora and Claire were the only unmarried women there. 2 The sisters Ethel and Gertrude had died from scarlet fever when they were young. Their father had died shortly after their mother. Their grandfather Charles Williamson had left them a fantastic fortune. 3 The sisters were drawn to the idea of being healthy and wealthy and they spent their fortune on traveling to health institutes and hospitals. They eventually received a book from Dr Linda Burfield Hazzard which explained how every ailment is caused by dietary factors. 4 The fasting treatment which was the subject of Dr Hazzard's book depended on the fact that disease has its origin in impaired digestion. The sisters thought little of traditional doctors and their drugs. They were excited to try the sanitarium in the country west of Seattle.
