Starck Postcard Book Philippe Starck, Taschen Publishing, 1996-07-01      Lake Geneva in Vintage Postcards

Carolyn Hope Smeltzer, Martha Kiefer Cucco, 2005-05-18 An overview of Lake Geneva's rich history. Lake Geneva was originally called Kishwauketo by the Oneota tribe, a name meaning clear or sparkling water. Carved out by a glacier, this same crystal water has attracted residents and tourists for centuries and continues to be a retreat for many in every season. Through a collection of vivid vintage postcards, authors Carolyn Hope Smeltzer and Martha Kiefer Cucco provide an inside look of Lake Geneva's past, rendered in views of mansions, cottages, and camps, and in images of recreation in the surrounding towns and of course Lake Geneva itself.      Snapshots and Short Notes Kenneth Wilson, 2020-08-14 Snapshots and Short Notes examines the photographic postcards exchanged during the first half of the twentieth century as illustrated first hand accounts of American life. Almost immediately after the introduction of the generic postcard at the turn of the century, innovations in small, accessible cameras added black and white photographs to the cards. The resulting combination of image and text emerged as a communication device tantamount to social media today. Postcard messages and photographs tell the stories of ordinary lives during a time of far-reaching technological, demographic, and social changes. A family's new combine harvester that could cut 40 acres a day, a young woman trying to find work in a man's world, the sight of an airplane in flight. However, postcards also chronicled and shared hardship and tragedy, the glaring reality of homesteading on the High Plains, natural disasters, preparations for war, and the struggles for racial and gender equality. With a meticulous eye for detail, painstaking research, and astute commentary, Wilson surveys more than 160 photographic postcards reproduced in full color that provide insights into every aspect of life in a time not far removed from our own.      Interior Design, 1990-11
