Top Tips and Conversation Starters for Making Friends at the School Gates

Things to say:

- Ask their name, not just their child's – parents often become known as so-and-so's mum/dad, but it is always uplifting to have someone remember your name.
- Start with a genuine compliment – your child seems so happy, you always seem so organised, I love your child's name.
- Ask about a school issue – did you manage to get the homework done? Are you going to the school dance? Does your child like the uniform?
- Ask about local sports groups, clubs or extracurricular classes – do you know of any good local swim schools? Does your child do a martial arts class?
- Ask about their morning – how do you tackle the school run? Does your child eat a large breakfast? How can I make myself look as organised as you each morning?
- Talk about the weather – isn't it nice to see the sun? Rain – at least the plants will get watered, it's cold enough!
- Ask 'why' questions instead of 'what' questions – involve longer answers – "Why did you choose this school for your child?"

• Offer to help organise a parent or teacher – school functions are usually organised by a group of parents who chat regularly so this is the perfect way to get involved.

• Encourage children and invite the parents – encourage your child to invite their friends and invite the parents to come along for a coffee. They can meet up for the whole term, have a drink and chat to any mutual parents.

• Have a parenting club – invite a group of parents to meet for a coffee or a drink to discuss the parents of children and things you or your child will be doing for the term.

• Go to the park after school – lots of school children go to the park for a play, especially in the summer months. This can be a great place to meet other parents and your child can play with other children away from the school gates.

• Join a club or team – when your child is in a club or team, you can meet other parents and your child can play with other children.

• Take your child to the park – if you have a park nearby, you can go there with your child and meet other parents and your child can play with other children.

• Use the school gate for your child – this is a great way to meet other parents and your child can play with other children when they are at school. You can also meet other parents and your child can play with other children when they are at school.
