The Dig Tree:

The Dig Tree Sarah Murgatroyd, 2010-01-04 Murgatroyd has brought together for the first time new scientific and historical evidence and tells the story of Burke and Wills the explorers who set out to cross Australia from coast to coast in brilliant detail Here at last is the book that brings to life Australia s most infamous story of exploration The Dig Tree describes vividly the remarkable courage the suffering and the moments of sheer lunacy as Burke and Wills struggled to survive in a harsh land they did not understand Sarah Murgatroyd s style is immensely readable She has written with warmth about Burke and Wills and their party and reveals fascinating detail for example that Burke had a notoriously bad sense of direction and was famous for getting lost even on the way home from his local pub Though we all know the basic story of the Burke and Wills expedition The Dig Tree reveals just how little most of us know of the individuals the politics the blunders and the ambitions behind this extraordinary event in Australia s history This is essential and utterly compelling reading
