Social Context Of Nonverbal Behavior:

The Social Context of Nonverbal Behavior Pierre Philippot, Robert S. Feldman, Erik J. Coats, 1999-08-13 A series of essays written by experts from around the world on the role of nonverbal behavior in everyday social interaction Among the topics addressed are nonverbal expressiveness in families television viewing and nonverbal behavior emotional mimicry culture and nonverbal behavior power smiling and gender children s use of nonverbal behavior nonverbal interactions with friends relatives and strangers nonverbal behavior as a social interaction facilitator the role of nonverbal behavior in close relationships and how nonverbal behavior reveals deception Human Behavior in Military Contexts National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Behavioral, Cognitive, and Sensory Sciences, Committee on Opportunities in Basic Research in the Behavioral and Social Sciences for the U.S.

Military, 2008-01-03 Human behavior forms the nucleus of military effectiveness Humans operating in the complex military system must possess the knowledge skills abilities aptitudes and temperament to perform their roles effectively in a reliable and predictable manner and effective military management requires understanding of how these qualities can be best provided and assessed Scientific research in this area is critical to understanding leadership training and other personnel issues social interactions and organizational structures within the military The U S Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences ARI asked the National Research Council to provide an agenda for basic behavioral and social research focused on applications in both the short and long term The committee responded by recommending six areas of research on the basis of their relevance potential impact and timeliness for military needs intercultural competence teams in complex environments technology based training nonverbal behavior emotion and behavioral neurophysiology The committee suggests doubling the current budget for basic research for the behavioral and social sciences across U S military research agencies The additional funds can support approximately 40 new projects per year across the committee s recommended research areas Human Behavior in Military Contexts includes committee reports and papers that demonstrate areas of stimulating ongoing research in the behavioral and social sciences that can enrich the military s ability to recruit train and enhance the performance of its personnel both organizationally and in its many roles in other cultures Student

Perceptions of Rules for Classroom Interaction H. Paul LeBlanc, 3rd, 1997-08 Burgoon s expectancy violation model posits that nonverbal rule violations will be evaluated according to the perceptions toward the violator and the behavior itself However the violator may have perceptions regarding the appropriateness of the rule This study measured the perceptions of high school students regarding the rules for classroom interaction It is believed that the rules for classroom interaction are rules which have been learned through the process of socialization and enculturation into the classroom setting throughout students careers These rules should be well known by all students by the time they reach tenth grade the grade being investigated A survey questionnaire was developed through a pilot study and was distributed to 244 students through the English classes of three East Baton Rouge parish high schools The high schools were chosen by relative drop out rate Students were grouped by sex race and age to measure differences in attitude by characteristics of potential dropouts The study found that males have more negative attitudes toward compliance with laziness rules and the importance of those laziness rules than females The study also found that Black students have a more positive attitudes regarding the importance of distraction laziness and respectfulness rules than non Black students Implications regarding the attitudes toward classroom rules are discussed The Nonverbal Communication Reader Laura K.
