Social Explorations:

Psycho-social Explorations of Trauma, Exclusion and Violence Christopher Scanlon, John Adlam, 2022-01-06 The central theme of this book is the operation of intersecting discourses of power privilege and positioning as they are revealed in fraught encounters between in groups and out groups in our deeply fractured world The authors offer a unique perspective on inter group dynamics and structural violence at local societal cultural and global levels dissecting processes of toxic othering and psychosocial re traumatisation The book offers the Diogenes Paradigm as a unique conceptual tool with which to analyse the ways in which those of us who come to be located outside or on the margins of dominant social structures are in one way or another the inheritors of the legacies of centuries of oppression and exclusion This analysis offers a distinctive psycho social redefinition of trauma that foregrounds the relationship between the inhospitable environments we generate and the experiences of unhousedness that we thereby perpetuate Written in an engaging and accessible style Psycho social Explorations of Trauma Exclusion and Violence directly addresses pressing global issues of racial trauma human mobility and climate disaster and offers a manifesto for the creative re imagining of the places and spaces in which conversations about restructuring and reparation can become sustainable This is an essential and compelling book for anyone committed to social justice especially for all practitioners working in health social care and community justice settings and researchers and academics across the behavioural and social sciences

Girlhood, Schools, and Media Michele Paule, 2016-09-13 This book explores the circulation and reception of popular discourses of achieving girlhood and the ways in which girls themselves participate in such circulation It examines the figure of the achieving girl within wider discourses of neoliberal self management and post feminist possibility considering the tensions involved in being both successful and successfully feminine and the strategies and negotiations girls undertake to manage these tensions The work is grounded in an understanding of media educational and peer contexts for the production of the successful girl It traces narratives across school television and online in texts produced for and by girls drawing on interviews with girls in schools online forum participation within the purpose built site www.smartgirls.tv and girls discussions of a range of teen dramas

Social England Henry Duff Traill, 1897 Designing History in East Asian Textbooks Gotelind Müller, 2011-02-01 This book analyses the efforts throughout East Asia to deploy education for purposes of political socialization and in particular in order to shape notions of identity The chapters also examine the trend of common textbook initiatives which have recently emerged in East Asia with the aim of helping to defuse tensions arguably fuelled by existing practices of mutual misrepresentation These are analysed in relation to the East Asian political context and compared with previous and ongoing endeavours in other parts of the world particularly Europe which have been keenly observed by East Asian practitioners Written by a group of international education experts chapters discuss the enduring focus on the role of curricula in inculcating homogenous visions of the national self and indeed homogenized visions of significant others Including contributions from scholars and curriculum developers involved personally in the writing of national and multi national history textbooks this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian education Asian history and comparative education studies Gotelind M ller is Professor of Chinese Studies University of Heidelberg Germany In the Swim Richard Henry Savage,1898 Thinking about the Lifecourse Elizabeth Frost,Stuart McClean,2013-11-25 How we change over time who we love what work we do how we die is shaped both by internal and external influences This book explores the important subject of human growth and development by combining the social context of how people live with their personal ways of thinking and being The result is a greater understanding of why people are who they are Taking a psychosocial approach to exploring human growth and development this book Provides an insightful exploration of the human life course by looking at significant life stages and key themes such as parenting ill health and violence Draws on both contemporary and classic research in the fields of psychology and sociology to deliver an in depth analysis of issues about self and society Moves beyond traditional limiting approaches to understanding people s lives toward an interdisciplinary psychosocial approach Whether you are studying on a Social Work Nursing or related Health or Social Care degree or taking a course in the newly emerging field of Psychosocial Studies this book is a clear and ground breaking contribution to the understanding of human growth and development Explorations in Sights and Sounds ,1994 Proceedings of the American Philosophical Society Held at Philadelphia for Promoting Useful Knowledge American Philosophical Society,1871 Media, Technology, and Literature in the Nineteenth Century Dr Colette Colligan,Dr Margaret Linley,2013-05-28 Operating at the intersection where new technology meets literature this collection discovers the relationship among image sound and touch in the long nineteenth century The chapters speak to the special mixed media properties of literature while exploring the important interconnections of science technology and art at the historical moment when media was being theorized debated and scrutinized Each chapter focuses on a specific visual acoustic or haptic dimension of media while also calling attention to the relationships among the three Famous works such as Wordsworth s I wandered lonely as a cloud and Shelley s Frankenstein are discussed alongside a range of lesser known literary scientific and pornographic writings Topics include the development of a print culture for the visually impaired the relationship between photography and narrative the kaleidoscope and modern urban experience Christmas gift books poetry painting and music as remediated forms the interface among the piano telegraph and typewriter Ernst Heinrich Weber s model of rationalized tactility and how the shift from visual to auditory telegraphic instruments amplified anxieties about the place of women in nineteenth century information networks Full of surprising insights and connections the collection offers new impetus for stimulating historical conversations and debates about nineteenth century media while also contributing fresh perspectives on new media and re mediation today Social Science Generalizations for Use in the Social Studies Curriculum George Peter Rusteika,John Milton Hofstrand,1958 Gaskell's Compendium of Forms, Educational, Social, Legal and Commercial, Embracing a Complete Self-teaching Course in Penmanship and
