Social Marketing in Action Debra Z. Basil, Gonzalo Diaz-Meneses, Michael D.

Basil, 2019-05-24 This textbook provides students with real world social marketing case studies from different countries and regions around the world taking learners from classroom theory to practice The primary objective is to clearly portray to students distinct identifiable steps that are essential for successful social marketing campaigns Core social marketing practices are applied to each case to help students master social marketing principles and apply them to their own real world social marketing activities in order to affect positive social change This textbook first provides the tools necessary to understand the effective application of social marketing and then offers 24 case studies exemplifying effective social marketing efforts from all around the world. Specifically Part I clearly and concisely explains the principles of social marketing in five chapters: Upstream vs downstream social marketing, SWOT competition, Fundamentals of social marketing, ethics, Formative and Evaluative Research Theories applied in social marketing, A historical perspective on social marketing. Part II features 24 social marketing case studies that demonstrate the application of social marketing principles. All 24 cases follow a consistent structure that includes Background, Positioning, SWOT, Research Objectives, The 4 P's, Target audience, Evaluation, Barriers and benefits, Discussion, Competition. This format allows for students and professors to easily and effectively select individual cases and compare between cases. This textbook also allows instructors to encourage critical thinking by having students compare and contrast not only the cases themselves but the applications used. In addition, teaching guides with answers to discussion questions, suggestions for activities inside and outside of the classroom and further readings are available to assist professors in teaching from this book.

Social Marketing and Public Health Jeff French, 2017-02-09. The last ten years have seen tremendous advances in the theory and practice base of social marketing globally. Social Marketing and Public Health Theory and Practice introduces new conceptual models and approaches to influence behaviour that promotes health and prevents disease. This new edition moves the book's focus to a globally relevant approach to the application and evaluation of social marketing and includes a range of international case studies. In addition to coverage of key concepts and techniques in social marketing, this book contains chapters on areas such as marketing on a budget, ethical issues and incorporating digital and social media platforms into social marketing strategies. A practical how-to guide, Social Marketing and Public Health empowers citizens by understanding their needs and working together to create healthy communities. It sets out a compelling case for a more citizen patient or client focused approach to promoting health and preventing disease, which is the core of good social marketing practice. Written by international experts in the field, this book is a useful guide for public health specialist planners and policy makers, social marketing organisations and professionals and students and academics in these fields.

NGOs and Social Responsibility Guler Aras, Eduardo Salas, 2010-09-08. It is increasingly being accepted that there is a benefit to both parties when a relationship is established between an NGO and a company. This book intends to research various aspects of such relationships in order to arrive at some conclusions regarding the potential benefits and pitfalls of such relationships.

Regulation and Best Practices in Public and Nonprofit Marketing Lucica Matei, 2010. The volume contains the papers presented during the 9th International Congress of the International Association on Public and Nonprofit Marketing (IAPNM) entitled Regulation and Best Practices in Public and Nonprofit Marketing. Structured in accordance with the sessions of the mentioned Congress, the volume includes papers and relevant contributions on marketing research development in the public administration, healthcare and social assistance, higher education, local development and more generally nonprofit organizations. The social marketing specific issues take an important part of the volume giving the diversity of the approached topics as well as the large number of researchers concerned with this matter. Though of small dimensions the contents of the sessions dedicated to the revival and reinvention of public marketing must be underlined as well as of the transfer of public marketing best practices to the South Eastern European states. Publishing this volume represents a term of the interest expressed by over 40 academic and research groups in Europe and other continents with interests in the public and nonprofit marketing field as well as in other European states bodies that develop specific empirical studies
