Fortune, Philip McCallion, Katharine Briar-Lawson, 2010-09-21 Social work professionals must demonstrate their effectiveness to legislators and governments not to mention clients and incoming practitioners A thorough evaluation of the activities ethics and outcomes of social work practice is critical to maintaining investment and interest in the profession and improving the lives of underserved populations Incorporating the concerns of a new century into a consideration of models for practice research this volume builds on the visionary work of William J Reid 1928 2003 who transformed social work research through empirically based and task centered approaches and more recently synthesized intervention knowledge for framing future study This collection reviews the task centered model and other contemporary Evidence Based Practice models for working with individuals families groups communities and organizations Essays demonstrate the value of these pragmatic approaches in the United States and international settings Contributors summarize state of the art methods in several key fields of service including children and families aging substance abuse and mental health They also evaluate the research movement itself outlining an agenda for today's sociopolitical landscape and the profession This volume inspires practice research to prioritize evidence as a base for the profession The Handbook of Social Work Research Methods Bruce Thyer, 2010 In the field of social work qualitative research is starting to gain more prominence as are mixed methods and various issues regarding race ethnicity and gender These changes in the field are reflected and updated in The Handbook of Social Work Research Methods Second Edition This text contains meta analysis designs to evaluate treatment and provides the support to help students harness the power of the Internet This handbook brings together leading scholars in research methods in social work     Conflict Resolution for the Helping Professions Allan Barsky, 2014-05-07 Barsky's hands-on text provides the theory, skills, and exercises to prepare readers for an array of conflict situations. It encourages developing professionals to see themselves as reflective practitioners in the roles of negotiators, mediators, advocates, facilitators, and peacebuilders. Readers will learn how to analyze conflict situations and develop theory-based strategies that can be used to intervene in an ethical and effective manner. Examples and exercises demonstrate how to apply conflict resolution skills when working with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and diverse communities. Conflict Resolution for the Helping Professions is the only current conflict resolution textbook designed specifically for social work, psychology, criminal justice, counseling, and related professions.

Supervision in the Helping Professions 5E Peter Hawkins, Aisling McMahon, 2020-05-27 A practical and empowering guide. The integration of old and new material from therapeutic, systemic, and organisational thinking provides a distinctive and deep foundation for an exceptionally broad account of the key tasks and major methods of supervision. Derek Leslie Milne, Fellow of The British Psychological Society, UK. An excellent book that provides timely and important information, highly recommended for supervisors across all helping professions. Tony Rousmaniere, Clinical Faculty, University of Washington, USA. No bookshelf on supervision or coaching is complete without this core book, which is insightful, challenging, and bang up to date. With new, important material, a wise book just got wiser. Eve Turner, Chair, Association of Professional Executive Coaching Supervision (APECS). This globally bestselling book provides a comprehensive guide to clinical supervision practice for helping professionals from various disciplines. As there has been a strong growth in research on supervision practice over the last 10 years, this new edition has been thoroughly updated to include insights from contemporary research and literature, providing supervisors with an accessible and well-informed grounding for their work. Highlights of this new edition include: Deeper consideration of the challenges of working as helping professionals in current times; Updated guidance for supervisors and supervisees on best practice and making the most of supervision; An updated chapter on the Seven-eyed model; A revised chapter on running supervisor training programmes, including guidance for training supervisors in using the Seven-eyed model; A new chapter on development of supervision across professions, including invited contributions from practitioners from 11 different disciplines; A new chapter offering a comprehensive review of research on supervision, focusing on application to practice.
