Social Training as a Curriculum Problem -- Evelyn Jones Hawkes, 1927 Social Problems John J. Macionis, 2005 Macionis's Social Problems is the only social problems text that explains how society frames social problems and solutions through politics. The text analyzes social issues and policies using the concepts of sociological theory and the everyday language of politics. Once students know how social problems are defined by our society through politics and how the policies to solve these problems are developed, students are able to become involved in solving social problems through activism and political involvement.
