Temple Maintenance:

The Building of the First Temple Peter Dubovský, 2015-11-26 What can we say about 1 Kings 6 8 that attributes the construction of the temple in its full glory to Solomon Peter Dubovsky approaches these texts from the diachronic point of view by investigating evidence gathered from the ancient Near East demonstrating that temples were often changed He analyzes biblical texts indicating that the first temple underwent some important changes This result leads to the final step of his investigation he offers a minimalist version of a chronological development of the first temple and ventures to offer a more nuanced model This conclusion on the one hand should be ultimately confronted with the results of archaeological excavation once they become available on the other hand this study can point to some nuances that only a text can preserve and no archaeologist can ever unearth

Counterheritage Denis Byrne, 2014-04-16 The claim that heritage practice in Asia is Eurocentric may be well founded but the view that local people in Asia need to be educated by heritage practitioners and governments to properly conserve their heritage distracts from the responsibility of educating oneself about the local popular beliefs and practices which constitute the bedrock of most people's engagement with the material past Written by an archaeologist who has long had one foot in the field of heritage practice and another in the academic camp of archaeology and heritage studies Counterheritage is at once a forthright critique of current heritage practice in the Asian arena and a contribution to this project of self education Popular religion in Asia including popular Buddhism and Islam folk Catholicism and Chinese deity cults has a constituency that accounts for a majority of Asia's population making its exclusion from heritage processes an issue of social justice but more pragmatically it explains why many heritage conservation programs fail to gain local traction This book describes how the tenets of popular religion affect building and renovation practices and describes how modernist attempts to suppress popular religion in Asia in the early and mid twentieth century impacted religious heritage Author Denis Byrne argues that the campaign by archaeologists and heritage professionals against the private collecting and looting of antiquities in Asia largely ignores the regimes of value which heritage discourse has helped erect and into which collectors and local diggers play Focussing on the Philippines Thailand and Taiwan but also referencing China and other parts of Southeast Asia richly detailed portraits are provided of the way people live with old things and are affected by them Narratives of the author's fieldwork are woven into arguments built upon an extensive and penetrating reading of the historical and anthropological literature The critical stance embodied in the title counterheritage is balanced by the optimism of the book's vision of a different practice of heritage advocating a view of heritage objects as vibrant agentic things enfolded in social practice rather than as inert and passive surfaces subject to conservation

Ethnography of Religious Beliefs and Social Orders in Ethnic Areas Liming Zhang, 2025-07-28 This book presents a fascinating study of the religion of minority groups living in rural areas in Yunnan province in the early twenty first century and how they use religious rituals to show their own nationality and spiritual culture By exploring these minority groups e.g. the Dai Bulang and

De ang the book makes a major contribution to our understanding of the relationship between religion and social functions and of the ways in which globalization and modernity are experienced at the most personal level It provides valuable insights into how minority people negotiate sacred secular demands and requirements how they experience a sense of satisfaction and comfort in Buddhist temples and how that experience shapes their sense of identity worldview values and relations with others In closing the book gives a voice to the experiences of Buddhists who are one of the most important and yet least visible signs of religion freedom in China s reform processes It offers a unique guide for all readers who are interesting in oriental studies and an ideal reference book for Anthropology and Buddhism courses at colleges and universities Sacred Rituals Of Creation Discipline In Indigenous And Ancient Art Forms (Refine and Edited) BD Sharma,101-01-01 Throughout history indigenous and ancient art forms have been shaped by profound spiritual disciplines and sacred rituals Sacred Rituals of Creation explores the intricate relationship between art culture and spirituality offering readers a glimpse into how various ancient civilizations used creative processes as a form of discipline and reverence From sacred geometry to the rhythmic dance of creation this book highlights how artists in ancient cultures harnessed ritualistic practices to bring their creations into the world Through in depth analysis and vivid storytelling readers will learn about the specific rituals tools and methods employed by artists and creators These ancient practices go beyond mere technique they are ways of connecting with the divine channeling higher energies and achieving mastery The Impacts of Dictatorship on Heritage

Management Minjae Zoh,2020-10-06 The relationship between heritage and dictatorship has arguably been relatively understudied compared to research on the nation state In recognising the importance of understanding how different political systems can have various and particular outcomes on heritage The Impacts of Dictatorship on Heritage Management has developed the concept of Authorised Dictatorial Discourse ADD to the ever growing and evolving field of Heritage Studies Through the exploration of the various impacts a dictatorship can have on the management and uses of heritage sites this book sets out to examine how a dictator s interests in certain heritage sites and particularly territories can affect how heritage becomes preserved and promoted in both the mid and long terms Building on Laurajane Smith s seminal works on Authorised Heritage Discourse AHD in her book Uses of Heritage Routledge 2006 this book also seeks to gain a more precise and in depth understanding of the relationship between heritage and dictatorship how authorised discourses on heritage has been exercised and how territory policies that influenced the preservation and promotion of heritage sites have been executed In doing so The Impacts of Dictatorship on Heritage Management aims to provide a better insight into demonstrate how and the extent to which the politics of heritage and territory can be interlinked with this type of political system This book will appeal to those with a keen interest in heritage management dictatorship and heritage South Korean heritage and theoretical heritage management It will be of particular interest to research students and scholars who are part of this interdisciplinary field Old Materials, New Climate Susan Pranger,2024-02-22 Old Materials New Climate Traditional

Building Materials in a Changing World is an accessible guidebook to understanding historic materials how they were traditionally made how they survived the test of time and how changes in climate are now impacting materials in new ways Protecting historic buildings from a rapidly changing and unpredictable climate requires an understanding of how climate affects weather and how weather affects the durability of the most widely used traditional materials wood adobe brick lime concrete metal and paint This resource examines how gradual and dramatic changes in climate threaten to accelerate normal weathering and presents strategies to safeguard historic materials for future generations Illustrated case studies explore how weather is affecting materials in specific historic buildings in climate zones in the United States and across the globe Drawing on the work of experts in conservation biology chemistry and environmental impacts this book is an invaluable resource for any student preservationist architect or contractor interested in expanding their knowledge of materials and why they perform as they do
