Screen Epiphanies Geoffrey Macnab, 2019-07-25 What I remember was that it was the first time a piece of fiction had had such a devastating emotional effect on me A lot of children remember seeing cartoons Pinocchio or Bambi or something that breaks their heart I remember seeing The Blue Angel and it breaking my heart It was the first time I realised there was an adult world that adults could damage each other or destroy each other emotionally It might have fed into a whole series of epiphanies about my own upbringing I was living in a family where my grandparents had separated in quite complex circumstances Perhaps it resonated with some elements of that to do with simply how love can be a rupturing and damaging emotion as well as a healing one Also to see somebody who is in an authority position made so small so diminished by the feeling of having no control Anthony Minghella The Blue Angel In a strange lethal way I was suddenly wildly attracted to the process of filmmaking even though it is described as a nightmare a matter of horror in that film There is a trancelike atmosphere Suddenly I was reminded that you can feel like it's a matter of life and death when you make a film It changed from being a mediocre feeling of emptiness in your life to something that feels necessary I realised that filmmaking can be many things and it can be narcotic in a way You can become addicted to it Thomas Vinterberg Hearts of Darkness Screen Epiphanies brings together 32 leading film makers to discuss the films that inspired them to pursue a career in the movie business or which influenced their own film making practice or which stayed with them because of their depictions of familiar communities intense human relationships or unknown worlds Beautifully illustrated with images from the films discussed Screen Epiphanies is a thought provoking and often moving insight into the creative process and the way in which artists are inspired by each other's work but also into the centrality of cinema in all our lives and its power to change our ambitions and how we see the world around us

Terence Davies Michael Koresky, 2014-10-15 Called the most important British filmmaker of his generation Terence Davies made his reputation with modern classics like Distant Voices Still Lives and The Long Day Closes personal works exploring his fractured childhood in Liverpool His idiosyncratic and unorthodox narrative films defy easy categorization as their seeming existence within realism and personal memory cinema is undermined by an abstractness that makes the way he lays bare personal pain come across as distant even alien Film critic Michael Koresky explores the unique emotional tenor of Davies's work by focusing on four paradoxes within the director's oeuvre films that are autobiographical yet fictional melancholy yet elating conservative in tone and theme yet radically constructed and obsessed with the passing of time yet frozen in time and space Through these contradictions the films intricate designs reveal a cumulative deeply personal meditation on the self Koresky also analyzes how Davies's ongoing negotiation of and struggle with questions of identity related to his past and his homosexuality imbue the details and jarring juxtapositions in his films with a queer sensibility which is too often overlooked due to the complexity of Davies's work and his unfashionable ambivalence toward his own sexual orientation Terence Davies Screenplays, Volume I Terence Davies, 2025-12-11 An anthology of Terence Davies's autobiographical and biographical screenplays with critical introductions and previously unpublished archival material The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2014-05-06 For almost thirty years David Thomson's Biographical Dictionary of Film has been not merely the finest reference book ever written about movies Graham Fuller Interview not merely the desert island book of art critic David Sylvester not merely a great crazy masterpiece Geoff Dyer The Guardian but also fiendishly seductive Greil Marcus Rolling Stone This new edition updates the older entries and adds 30 new ones Darren Aronofsky Emmanuelle Beart Jerry Bruckheimer Larry Clark Jennifer Connelly Chris Cooper Sofia Coppola Alfonso Cuarón Richard Curtis Sir Richard Eyre Sir Michael Gambon Christopher Guest Alejandro Gonzalez Inarritu Spike Jonze Wong Kar Wai Laura Linney Tobey Maguire Michael Moore Samantha Morton Mike Myers Christopher Nolan Dennis Price Adam Sandler Kevin Smith Kiefer Sutherland Charlize Theron Larry Wachowski and Andy Wachowski Lew Wasserman Naomi Watts and Ray Winstone In all the book includes more than 1300 entries some of them just a pungent paragraph some of them several thousand words long In addition to the new musts Thomson has added key figures from film history lively anatomies of Graham Greene Eddie Cantor Pauline Kael Abbott and Costello Noël Coward Hoagy Carmichael Dorothy Gish Rin Tin Tin and more Here is a great rare book one that encompasses the chaos of art entertainment money vulgarity and nonsense that we call the movies Personal opinionated funny daring provocative and passionate it is the one book that every filmmaker and film buff must own Time Out named it one of the ten best books of the 1990s Gavin Lambert recognized it as a work of imagination in its own right Now better than ever a masterwork by the man playwright David Hare called the most stimulating and thoughtful film critic now writing Terence Davies Wendy Everett, 2004-09-04 Terence Davies has made some of the most innovative harrowing and hauntingly lyrical films of the contemporary era This first ever book length study of his work combines detailed analysis of all his films with a persuasive and stimulating investigation of key filmic issues of time and memory identity and selfhood and the nature of literary adaptation as well as a previously unpublished interview with Davies himself The book demonstrates that Davies's films successfully subvert traditional division between popular culture and art house cinema Gardner explores not only Davies's debt to social realism the British Documentary movement and Ealing comedies but equally to the European auteur tradition and to the great Hollywood musicals and melodramas that continue to inspire him It provides fresh insight into the centrality of music in Davies's work and into his conviction that film itself is closer to music than to any other art form Personal Visions Mario Falsetto, 2000 Falsetto film studies Concordia U Montreal Canada deftly interviews 17 independent filmmakers about the films they created emphasizing the more interesting aspects of how they conceived of the
