Renderings of Church Hymns From Eastern and Western Office Books Robert Maude

Moorsom,2015-06-16 Excerpt from Renderings of Church Hymns From Eastern and Western Office Books The following renderings are published in the hope that English Churchmen may be stimulated to read the ecclesiastical books of Eastern Churches in the original or in translations and put their hymns into such an English form that they may be introduced into our services The Catholic Church of Great and Greater Britain ought to give her hand to each and all of her Catholic sisters When Christians meet together to praise God their hymns of thanksgiving and penitence are alike in unity and concord When the Greek Catholic the Armenian Catholic the Roman Catholic and the English Catholic unite in singing the same chant listening Angels say Behold how these Christians are one And so all who love unity desire that the Church of England may be in touch with every branch of the Church of God One step towards reaching this unity would be that English sons and daughters of the Church should use in their occasional services the great hymns of the Churches of the East Why do we not Because we know little or nothing about them About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
