Sennacherib's Campaign Against Judah and Jerusalem in 701 B.C. Nazek Khalid Matty,2016-08-22 This study offers a reconstruction of Sennacherib's campaign against Judah and Jerusalem in 701 BC. It contrasts and compares various partly contradictory readings of this event and challenges established narratives. By giving equal weight to a great variety of different sources whether literary or archaeological the author comes to a new and profound understanding of this complex military conflict

Plundering the Egyptians John J. Yeo,2009-11-16 Plundering the Egyptians focuses on the study of the Old Testament at Westminster Theological Seminary from 1929 to 1998. More specifically it presents the lives and academic labors of Robert Dick Wilson 1929 1930 Edward Joseph Young 1936 1968 Raymond Bryan Dillard 1969 1993 and Tremper Longman III 1981 1998. These featured scholars were highly influential in changing the shape of Old Testament studies at Westminster through the introduction of novel scholarly tools and ideas that reveal methodological and theological development. Their individual historical contexts scholarly contributions and interactions with historical critical scholarship are presented and analyzed. Modifications in their respective methodologies are highlighted and often indicate significant shifts within the Old Princeton Westminster trajectory from an anti critical stance toward a position of openness toward historical critical methodology and its conclusions. The implications of these shifts within Westminster are important because they mirror the current changes and challenges in evangelicalism today

Our Reason for Hope T. Leong,2018-04-05 The meaning of history is about the purpose and goal of history. According to the Old Testament this involves redeeming humanity and transforming civilization toward an eternal hope of a world in which every longing is fulfilled and every fear is no more. When the Old Testament is understood on its terms it reveals a marvelous vision of that hope. To capture this vision as well as present credible reason for the hope this book interweaves into one coherent exposition five strands of Old Testament studies usually separated into different books theology ethics mission history apologetics
