White Man's Law Sidney L. Harring, 1998-01-01 In this sweeping re investigation of Canadian legal history Harring shows that Canada has historically dispossessed Aboriginal peoples of even the most basic civil rights

Elite White Men Ruling Joe Feagin, Kimberley Ducey, 2017-04-07 This book examines the who what when where and how of elite white male dominance in U S and global society In spite of their domination in the United States and globally that we document herein elite white men have seldom been called out and analyzed as such They have received little to no explicit attention with regard to systemic racism issues as well as associated classism and sexism issues Almost all public and scholarly discussions of U S racism fail to explicitly foreground elite white men or to focus specifically on how their interlocking racial class and gender statuses affect their globally powerful decisionmaking Some of the power positions of these elite white men might seem obvious but they are rarely analyzed for their extraordinary significance While the principal focus of this book is on neglected research and policy questions about the elite white male role and dominance in the system of racial oppression in the United States and globally because of their positioning at the top of several societal hierarchies the authors periodically address their role and dominance in other oppressive e g class gender hierarchies

White Guys on Campus Nolan L Cabrera, 2019 White Guys on Campus is a critical examination of the role of race in higher education centering Whiteness in an effort to unveil the frequently unconscious habits of racism among white male students It details many of the contours of contemporary systemic racism while continually engaging the possibility of White students to engage in anti racism

A White Man's Province Patricia Roy, 1989 We are not strong enough to assimilate races so alien from us in their habits We are afraid they will swamp our civilization as such Nanaimo Free Press 1914 A White Man's Province examines how British Columbians changed their attitudes towards Asian immigrants from one of toleration in colonial times to vigorous hostility by the turn of the century and describes how politicians responded to popular cries to halt Asian immigration and restrict Asian activities in the province White workingmen objected to Asian sojourning habits to their low living standards and wages and to their competition for jobs in specific industries Because employers and politicians initially supported Asian immigrants early manifestations of antipathy often appeared just as another dispute between capital and labour But as their number increased complaints about Asians became widespread and racial characteristics became the nucleus of such terms as a white man's province a catch phrase which as Roy notes covered a wide variety of fears and transcended particular economic interests The Chinese were the chief targets of hostility in the nineteenth century by the twentieth the Japanese more economically ambitious and backed by a powerful mother country appeared more threatening After Asian disenfranchisement in the 1870s provincial politicians freed from worry about the Asian vote fueled and exploited public prejudices The Asian question also became a rallying cry for provincial rights when Ottawa disallowed anti Asian legislation Although federal leaders such as John A Macdonald and Wilfrid Laurier shared a desire to keep Canada a white man's country they followed a policy of restraint in view of imperial concerns The belief that whites should be superior as Roy points out was then common throughout the Western world Many of the arguments used in British Columbia were influenced by anti Asian sentiments and legislation emanating from California and from Australia and other British colonies Drawing on almost every newspaper and magazine report published in the province before 1914 and on government records and private manuscripts Roy has produced a revealing historical account of the complex basis of racism in British Columbia and of the contribution made to the province in these early years by its Chinese and Japanese residents The White Man in the Tree and Other Stories Mark Kurlansky,2001-09 A comedy of cultural misunderstandings set in the Caribbean New York and Paris a novella and eight stories about people who because of their differences between men and women blacks and whites Caribbeans and visitors Jews and Christians rich and poor misjudge each other Jacket Theories of Race and Racism Les Back,John Solomos,2000 20 Lola Young IMPERIAL CULTURE Asiatic Review ,1896 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association A History of Ireland in the Eighteenth Century William Edward Hartpole Lecky,1892 The Effects of tropical light on white men Charles Edward Woodruff,1916 The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: The Century dictionary ... prepared under the superintendence of W.
