Monthly Magazine* ,1882      Power and Freedom in the Space of Reasons Tuomo Tiisala,2024-07-31 This book argues that the received view of the distinction between freedom and power must be rejected because it rests on an untenable account of the discursive cognition that endows individuals with the capacity for autonomy and self governed rationality In liberal and Kantian approaches alike the autonomous subject is a self standing starting point whose freedom is constrained by relations of power only contingently because they are external to the subject s constitution Thus the received view defines the distinction between freedom and power as a dichotomy Michel Foucault is arguably the most important critic of that dichotomy However it is widely agreed that Foucault falls short of justifying the alternative view he develops where power and freedom are essentially entangled instead The book fills out the gap by investigating the social preconditions of discursive cognition Drawing on pragmatist inferentialist resources from the philosophy of language Wittgenstein Sellars and Brandom it presents a new interpretation of Foucault s philosophy that is unified by his overlooked idea of the archaeology of knowledge As a result the book not only explains why and how power and freedom must be entangled but also what it means ethically to pursue and gain autonomy with respect to one s own understanding Power and Freedom in the Space of Reasons will appeal to scholars and advanced students working in social and political philosophy critical theory ethics philosophy of language and the history of 20th century philosophy The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4 0 license Any third party material in this book is not included in the OA Creative Commons license unless indicated otherwise in a credit line to the material Please direct any permissions enquiries to the original rightsholder This research was funded in whole or in part by the Austrian Science Fund FWF 10 55776 COE3 For open access purposes the author has applied a CC BY NC public copyright license to any author accepted manuscript version arising from this submission Published with the support of the Austrian Science Fund FWF 10 55776 PUB1157      My Novel Edward Bulwer Lytton Baron Lytton,1881      Power in the International Investment Framework Maria A. Gwynn,2016-07-26 This book offers a unique analysis of bilateral investment treaties BITs By developing a new power focused paradigm for understanding the international investment framework the author illustrates why there was no paradoxical behaviour when developing countries agreed to the BIT regime and what has spurred their reaction against it now She also examines how attempts to regulate investment at a multilateral level have failed and why the rules of the framework are evolving Inspired by the work of Susan Strange Gwynn fills a significant lacuna in our understanding of these issues by demonstrating how power determines the actions of all those involved This holistic reinterpretation of international investment focuses in particular on Latin America but has wider implications for the negotiation of new treaties including such controversial provisions as the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership It will appeal to lawyers economists political scientists and scholars of Latin America     The Tariff James Kimbrough Jones,1884     Shakespeare-lexicon: M-Z Alexander Schmidt,1886     The Gentleman's Magazine ,1888     The Child and the Book: a Manual of Method, for Sunday School Teachers and Other Religious Instructors. ... Enrico Fels,2016-11-03 This book investigates whether a power shift has taken place in the Asia Pacific region since the end of the Cold War By systematically examining the development of power dynamics in Asia Pacific it challenges the notion that a wealthier and militarily more powerful China is automatically turning the regional tides in its favour With a special emphasis on Sino US competition the book explores the alleged linkage between the regional distribution of relevant material and immaterial capabilities national power and the much cited regional power shift The book presents a novel concept for measuring power in international relations by outlining a composite index on aggregated power CIAP that includes 55 variables for 44 regional countries and covers a period of twenty years Moreover it develops a middle power theory that outlines the significance of middle powers in times of major power shifts By addressing political military and economic cooperation via a structured focused comparison and by applying a comparative historical analysis the book analyses in depth the bilateral relations of six regional middle powers to Washington and Beijing     The Nineteenth Century and After ,1914     The Midland Monthly ,1897     The Westminster Review ,1872     Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1890     English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1893
