The Burmasiam Railway The Secret Diary Of Dr Robert Hardie 194245:

The Burma-Siam Railway Robert Hardie,1984 The Study Relates To The Notorious Burma Siam Railway On Which Japanese Employed Thousands Of Allied Prisoners Of War It Presents A Diary Kept By A Medical Officer Who Was A Prisoner Which Shows The Houses Of Captivity The Burma-Thailand Railway ,1993 The Thailand-Burma Railway, 1942-1946: Voluntary accounts Paul H. Kratoska,2006 The Burma-Siam Railway Robert Hardie,1984 'Boredom is the Enemy' Amanda Laugesen,2016-04-15 War is often characterised as one percent terror 99 per cent boredom Whilst much ink has been spilt on the one per cent relatively little work has been directed toward the other 99 per cent of a soldier's time As such this book will be welcomed by those seeking a fuller understanding of what makes soldiers endure war and how they cope with prolonged periods of inaction It explores the issue of military boredom and investigates how soldiers spent their time when not engaged in battle work or training through a study of their creative imaginative and intellectual lives It examines the efforts of military authorities to provide solutions to military boredom and the problem of discipline and morale through the provisioning of entertainment and education but more importantly explores the ways in which soldiers responded to such efforts arguing that soldiers used entertainment and education in ways that suited them The focus in the book is on Australians and their experiences primarily during the First World War but with subsequent chapters taking the story through the Second World War to the Vietnam War This focus on a single national group allows questions to be raised about what might or might not be exceptional about the experiences of a particular national group and the ways national identity can shape an individual's relationship and engagement with education and entertainment It can also suggest the continuities and changes in these experiences through the course of three wars The story of Australians at war illuminates a much broader story of the experience of war and people's responses to war in the twentieth century British Politics, Society and Empire, 1852-1945 David W. Gutzke,2017-04-21 Cover Title Copyright Contents List of illustrations Notes on contributors Acknowledgements 1 Trevor O Lloyd as teacher scholar mentor and friend 2 Introduction 3 A party for peers and parsons The social composition of the Irish Conservative party and its electoral consequences 1852 68 4 Florence Nightingale reconsidered as the founder of modern nursing 5 Britain muckraking and transnational exchanges 6 Politics and the social sphere the Primrose League during the First World War 7 Baldwin's Empire Canada 1927 8 Experiences of British prisoners of war in the Far East death and their relatives at home from 1942 A bibliography Trevor O Lloyd Index

Captivity, Slavery and Survival as a Far East POW Peter Fyans,2012-04-19 Captivity Slavery and Survival as a Far East POW is the incredibly moving story of Gus Anckorn a British soldier who was captured by the Japanese and held for over three and a half years Before the war Gus was a magician and throughout the war entertained both fellow soldiers and Japanese guards with his tricks Gus has a brilliant sense of humor and a tell it as it is attitude which got him into a number of scrapes with both the Japanese and his own side He has a remarkable humility to his character and is extremely endearing both in the book and face to face guaranteeing massive media attention Gus experienced terrible ordeals that no one should have to face He should have been killed on four or five occasions but remarkably survived due to quick thinking and good luck Gus also reveals the heartache of leaving his fiancée behind and not knowing if he would ever see her again This is an incredibly moving book and will surely be considered as one of the classic Far East POW stories Gus is still alive and active today very publicity focused and well connected He still holds the unique claim of being the youngest ever member of the Magic Circle and is now currently their oldest ever member He is also a member of the Masons Gus has appeared on BBC TV when they arranged for him to meet a Japanese POW camp guard on the bridge at Kwai Hellfire Cameron

Since c1970 Thailand's position in the world has changed from potential communist domino to one of the world's most dynamic economies The confrontational politics of the 1970s with the student led revolution of 1973 and the bloody right wing backlash In 1976 were replaced by a new consensus in the following decade A concerted export drive sparked off a tremendous economic boom during the 1980s and early 1990s Tourism also expanded rapidly and is now the single largest foreign exchange earner Economic Success has however been at a cost Each year Bangkok has become more chaotic in the face of increased traffic and an Unprecedented building boom and nationally there has been a widening gap between the haves and the have nots Moreover Thailand is experiencing a potential AIDS time bomb and serious environmental degradation Despite Such pressures and the sudden economic crisis of mid 1997 Thailand has enjoyed an enviable record of stability in recent years The Burma - Siam Railway Robert Hardie,1983 Prisoners-of-War and Their Captors in World War II Bob Moore,Kent Fedorowich,1996-11 Examines the experiences of individual prisoners of war looking in particular at alleged war crimes and ensuing claims for compensation levelled against the Japanese and at British treatment of Italian POWs The book provides an overview and synthesis of the most heated debates in the field The Men of the Line Pattie Wright,2008 The extraordinary engineering feat of the Thai Burma Railway or the Line as it is often called was built with a slave labour force A mixture of Australian Asian British Dutch and American men built 688 bridges eight made of steel and concrete viaducts cuttings embankments and kilometres and kilometres of railway track through thick malarial jungle The men of the Line died of starvation torture and disease at the hands of the Japanese Imperial Army here are their stories Provided by publisher Ottley's Bibliography of British Railway History.
