The Bitter Crob:

A Landscape of War Munira Khayyat, 2022-11-22 What worlds take root in war In this book anthropologist Munira Khayyat describes life along the southern border of Lebanon where resistant ecologies thrive amid a terrain of perennial war A Landscape of War takes us to frontline villages where armed invasions indiscriminate bombings and scattered land mines have become the environment where everyday life is waged This book dwells with multispecies partnerships such as tobacco farming and goatherding that carry life through seasons of destruction Neither green tinged utopia nor total devastation these ecologies make life possible in an insistent deadly region Sourcing an anthropology of war from where it is lived this book decolonizes distant theories of war and brings to light creative practices forged in the midst of ongoing devastation In lyrical prose that resonates with imperiled conditions across the Global South Khayyat paints a portrait of war as a place where life must go on
