Hill,2017      The 1849 California Trail Diaries of Elijah Preston Howell Elijah Preston Howell,1995 Elijah Preston Howell traveled from Gentry County Missouri to the goldfields in California during the dramatic summer of 1849 His eloquent and descriptive gold rush diary has been superbly annotated and placed in historical context by trail scholars Emigrant Trails Historical Studies Series No 1      Mormon Pioneer National Historic Trail Stanley Buchholz Kimball,1991      The California Trail to Gold in American History Carl R. Green,2000 Examines the thrills and disappointments of the nineteenth century rush for gold in California during which people abandoned their jobs and homes and headed west in hopes of becoming rich      Historic Sites and Markers Along the Mormon and Other Great Western Trails Stanley Buchholz Kimball,1988 This book is a comprehensive guide to more than 550 historic sites and markers scattered along some 10 000 miles of emigrant trails By the use of the accompanying maps and commentary in the text the trails themselves can be followed rather closely Preface      An Eye for History Dean Knudsen,1997      Updating the Literary West ,1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West s literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children s literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHW This volume again affirms the West s literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister      CRM ,1997      Desperate Passage Ethan Rarick,2008-02-04 In late October 1846 the last wagon train of that year s westward migration stopped overnight before resuming its arduous climb over the Sierra Nevada Mountains unaware that a fearsome storm was gathering force After months of grueling travel the 81 men women and children would be trapped for a brutal winter with little food and only primitive shelter The conclusion is known by spring of the next year the Donner Party was synonymous with the most harrowing extremes of human survival But until now the full story of what happened what it tells us about human nature and about America s westward expansion remained shrouded in myth Drawing on fresh archaeological evidence recent research on topics ranging from survival rates to snowfall totals and heartbreaking letters and diaries made public by descendants a century and a half after the tragedy Ethan Rarick offers an intimate portrait of the Donner party and their unimaginable ordeal a mother who must divide her family a little girl who shines with courage a devoted wife who refuses to abandon her husband a man who risks his life merely to keep his word But Rarick resists both the gruesomely sensationalist accounts of the Donner party as well as later attempts to turn the survivors into archetypal pioneer heroes The Donner Party Rarick writes is a story of hard decisions that were neither heroic nor villainous Often the emigrants displayed a more realistic and typically human mixture of generosity and selfishness an alloy born of necessity A fast paced heart wrenching clear eyed narrative history A Desperate Hope casts new light on one of America s most horrific encounters between the dream of a better life and the harsh realities such dreams so often must confront The Great California Trail in 1849 Andel J. McCall,1882 The Mormon Trail William Hill,1996-04 Was in most ways similar to that of other emigrants the religious motivations tight organization and family groups of the Mormons gave their migration a distinct character William Hill introduces the Mormons their eventful early history and the characteristics of the migration west His book also includes a chronology of trail related events excerpts from diaries and guidebooks songs historical maps over 200 then and now illustrations descriptions of major
