Beyond The Back Room Marian Womack, 2011 Klappentext This collection of essays examines current trends in scholarly research on Spanish author Carmen Martín Gaité 1925-2000 It concentrates on the least explored areas of Martín Gaité's oeuvre such as her collage artwork the relationship between image and text in her work and her close relationship with themes such as genre writing the fairy tale and textual physical notions of space as well as her personal theories on orality and narration As we pass the tenth anniversary of her death Martín Gaité continues to be an increasing focus of study as scholars start to identify and comprehend the breadth and scope of her work The essays in the volume complement previous studies of Martín Gaité's major works from the 1960s and 1970s by focusing largely on her later novels together with in depth analysis of the manuscripts and artistic materials that have been made available since her death Figuring Animals M. Pollock, C. Rainwater, 2016-10-03 This is a collection of fifteen essays which expose weaknesses in western epistemological frames of reference that for centuries have limited our views and thus our experiences of animal being including our own The volume contributes to current discussions of new ways of seeing the other inhabitants of this world and more effective ways of sharing the world with them The contributors draw on and complement the growing field of ecocriticism but because the contributors draw on an array of disciplinary and cultural perspectives it will appeal to a wide audience ranging from literary scholars philosophers art historians anthropologists and cultural historians including graduate and undergraduate students in all these disciplines to laypersons interested in nature writing and environmental
