The Mage of Monrovia Terry Spear, An apprentice of the mage they had destroyed earlier now threatens Inherian once again But when Mexia arrives at Langdon to become school trained she learns the school will not permit a woman to attend

But she must destroy the mage's apprentice and she cannot do so without the training. She must use the magic she has learned to discover a way to defeat the apprentice before it is too late. Mexia has already done much more than most school-trained mages when she and her companions had gone in search of the scepter of salvation. But now one of the apprentices of the evil wizard they had destroyed has stolen his spell book and plans to take up where he had left off and she has to try and stop him. Mexia believes the only way for her to defeat the mage is to become school-trained like he was with the eventual goal of becoming a high wizard, the first of her kind in Inherian. But the current headmaster denies her entrance because she's a woman. Though if she can get the former headmaster's recommendation, she may attend. And that's the beginning of the trouble. First there's the wizard. Then the immovable headmaster. And then the circle of misfortunes. It all goes downhill from there.

A woman who panics and collapses whenever she meets a man due to trauma from her past. Wanting to do what she likes rather than going off to college, Yuna opens up her own business that specializes in boxed lunches: A Tasty Meal. She gets scared when one day she sees the tall Soohyuk standing outside her restaurant, but she soon learns he is only drawn to the delicious smell. And somehow, she comes to be in charge of his everyday meals. When Soohyuk meets Yuna, a confident, surefooted woman who gets startled and scared when he comes near, he wants to know everything there is to know about her.
