The Making of the Creeds Frances M. Young,2002-05-01 In lucid and non technical prose Young demonstrates how and why the two most familiar Christian creeds the Apostles Creed and the Nicene Creed came into being She describes how creeds originated in instruction before baptism and have their roots in the New Testament itself She then shows how the rise of Gnosticism and a tendency towards fragmentation in the church made a clear statement of faith necessary as well as outlining the various controversies which led to particular words and phrases being included in the creeds as we now have them She then describes the construction of the great Christian doctrines of the Trinity and incarnation Classical Trinitarian Theology Tarmo Toom,2007-11-15 Classical Trinitarian Theology for Seminary Students is a textbook on patristic Trinitarian doctrines Part I introduces classical Trinitarian theology with the help of short discussion definitions and comparisons It is designed for incoming seminary students who have never formally studied theology Part II is for intermediate students It comments on three charts which attempt to depict graphically the patristic search for Christian Trinitarian theology This section is geared towards seminary students who have already studied for a few years and would like to revisit the classical doctrine of the Trinity at a more advanced level but who are not really ready for engaging primary texts independently whether in Greek Latin or English Part III is composed for advanced students who enjoy tackling primary texts It provides a list of some important Greek or Latin primary texts and the accessible translations in English

Athanasius of Alexandria Lois Farag,2020-04-29 Athanasius of Alexandria a famous theologian and historical figure is quoted by many but known by few His famous dictum For he became human that we might be made god theopoi th men is explained within the context of his theology and spirituality The Introduction familiarizes the reader with Athanasius s writings and the historical context of his theology The reader will engage with the Athanasian language and thought that shaped the Christian understanding of the Trinity The reader also takes a journey through Athanasius s understanding of the human person created in the image of God and living the life of renewal The Introduction aims to guide the reader to a Christian theologian who had the courage to oppose emperors and bishops and to endure exiles and other threats because of his unwavering theological convictions Making Sense of the Creeds Rupert Eric Davies,1987 The Leeds Liturgy

Raymond Creed,2010 The Leeds Liturgy encourages Christians to worship God in spirit and in truth John 4 24 It does this by proclaiming scripture teaching in a unique and interactive manner An attempt is made to address the question How can we honour God in our worship It helps rebuild Christianity by providing a practical worship aid and a more thorough engagement with Bible doctrine By acting as a focus of unity this resource could also sustain Christians during what could be very difficult times of persecution and mass deception Specific sections are geared to helping Christians to discern the will of God by receiving and checking any guidance from the Holy Spirit Objective tests are provided in order to help in the assessment of spiritual occurrences Two articles at the end argue that bible based liturgies and creeds can be legitimate means of encountering God Heythrop Journal, 2003 A select book list appears quarterly Philip Francis Esler, 2000 The Early Christian World presents an exhaustive erudite and lavishly illustrated treatment of the first Christian centuries from the Jewish War and fall of the Temple to the final abolition of paganism by Theodosius
