An Exposition of the Epistle to the Romans Robert Haldane, 1970 Exposition of the Epistle to the Romans Robert Haldane, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1842 edition Excerpt only is future Now it is veiled from us in Heaven but ere long it shall be revealed God is a source of ineffable light joy knowledge power and goodness He is the sovereign good and will communicate himself to them that behold him in a way that is incomprehensible In us The glory here spoken of is that to which the Apostle John refers when he says that we shall see the Lord as he is and that we shall be made like him If the rays of the sun illuminate the darkness on which they shine what will be that light which the sun of righteousness will produce in the children of him who is the Father of lights If the face of Moses shone when amidst the terrors of the law he talked with God what shall their condition be who shall behold him not on the mountain that might be touched and that burned with fire but in the heaven of heavens not amidst thunderings and lightnings but amidst the express testimonies of his favour and blessing They VOL II R shall appear in the sanctuary of the Lord and discern plainly the mysteries of the wisdom of God They shall behold not the ark and the propitiatory but the things in the heavens which these were made to represent They shall see as they are seen and be known as they are known To the enjoyment of this glory after the persecutions and troubles of this life the bridegroom is represented as calling his church Lo the winter is past the rain is over and gone the flowers appear on the earth the time of the singing of birds is come Arise my love my fair one and come away As there is no proportion between finite and infinite so no comparison can be made between the things that are seen and temporal and the things that are unseen and eternal between our light

Robert Haldane,1842 An Exposition of the Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Romans John Brown,1766 Exposition of the Epistle to the Romans Robert Haldane,2017-10-12 Excerpt from Exposition of the Epistle to the Romans With Remarks on the Commentaries of Macknight Moses Stuart and Tholuck LL Scripture is given by inspiration of God Every page of the sacred volume is stamped with the impress of Deity and contains an inexhaustible treasure of wisdom and knowledge and consolation Some portions of the word of God like some parts of the material creation may be more important than others But all have their proper place all proclaim the character of their glorious Author and all ought to be earnestly and reverentially studied Whatever be their subject whether it relates to the history of individuals or of nations whether it contains the words of precept or exhortation or whether it teaches by example all is profitable for doctrine for reproof for correction for instruction in righteousness But while every part of the word of God demands the most serious attention it is not to be doubted that certain portions of the sacred volume call for more frequent and deeper meditation In the Old Testament the Book of Psalms contains a summary of all Scripture and an abridgment of its most important instructions and sweetest consolations In the New Testament the Epistle to the Romans is entitled to peculiar regard It is the only part of Scripture which contains a detailed and systematic exhibition of the doctrines of Christianity The great truths which are embodied and inculcated in every other part of the Bible are here brought together in a condensed and comprehensive form More especially the glorious doctrine of justification by faith is clearly unfolded and exhibited in the strongest light About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans Charles Hodge,1993 Commentary on the Epistle to the Romans was first published in 1835 and after several editors was
