The B List David Sterritt, John C. Anderson, 2008-10-20 What kind of collection could possibly find common ground among The Son of Kong, Platoon and Pink Flamingos? What kind of fevered minds could conceive of such a list? What are the unheard of qualities that tie them all together? The answers: This book, The National Society of Film Critics' And the far-reaching enticements of the B movie itself. Once the B movie was the Hollywood stepchild, the underbelly of the double feature. Today it is a more inclusive category, embracing films that fall outside the mainstream by dint of their budgets, their visions, their grit and occasionally, sometimes, essentially, their lack of what the culture cops call good taste. The films in The B List are offbeat, unpredictable and decidedly idiosyncratic. And that's why we love them.

Young World Frederick Rycroft, 2012-09 Book Two of Young World. Friends till the end concludes the story of three young teenage boys as they continue their friendship with more humorous and heartfelt events as they make their way toward their high school graduation. The sequel to Book One: Young World, the Beginning follows the boys through their daily adventures and relationship in a small northern town in New York State. Their remarkable and exciting experiences will keep the reader spellbound at times laughing and other times crying at their teenage adventures as their bond continues to strengthen.

The Golden Age of Disaster Cinema Nik Havert, 2019-05-10 From the 1950s through the 1970s, disaster movies were a wildly popular genre. Audiences thrilled at the spectacle of these films, many of which were considered glamorous for their time. Derided by critics, they became box office hits and cult classics, inspiring filmmakers around the globe. Some of them launched the careers of producers, directors and actors who would go on to create some of Hollywood's biggest blockbusters. With more than 40 interviews with actors, actresses, producers, stuntmen, special effects artists and others, this book covers the Golden Age of sinking ships, burning buildings, massive earthquakes, viral pandemics and outbreaks of animal madness.

Sifted Karen Harmening, 2024-06-04 The Death of a child. Bearing the unbearable. A journey of faith. The complex questions, experiences and emotions that accompany grief are painfully isolating. Seize this rare opportunity to intimately journey alongside a grieving mother through the first seven years of grief. Candidly confront many painful yet common struggles of grief and reconcile shattering loss with faith in God. June 8, 2017, Scott and Karen Harmening's seventeen-year-old daughter, Sarah, was killed in a tragic church bus crash outside of Atlanta, Georgia. Scott was driving behind the bus and watched helplessly as it crossed into the adjacent lane, striking another vehicle sharply, overcorrected and then flipped across the interstate. After crawling through the wreckage to get to Sarah, he frantically called Karen to tell her to pray for Sarah, who was pinned beneath the wreckage. Karen and their remaining daughters prayed together and hurriedly began the three-and-a-half-hour drive from Huntsville, Alabama, to Scott and Sarah, only to learn upon their arrival that Sarah had died hours before. Karen, a Christian writer and blogger, immediately began writing to process the excruciating questions, experiences and emotions that accompany the death of a child. Sifted is the collected work of seven years of writings. With raw honesty, explore the depths of the valley of the shadow of death with her to reconcile shattering loss with faith in God Witness the unexpectedly sweet mingling of sorrow with hope and peace And discover deep in the shadowed valley a costly joy rendered by sorrow so pure and precious that it is inexpressible and full of glory Highlights One hundred entries written over a span of seven years Each entry is a transparent account of wrestling through a specific question experience or struggle related to grief Entries may be read in chronological order or topically by using the included topical index If you are grieving read and be encouraged you are not alone If you love someone who is grieving read to better understand suffering and grief If you love stories of faith triumphing in adversity read and be blessed Explore topics such as Understanding Grief Hard Questions Like What If and Why Surviving the Many Hard Days and Dates Finding Hope Finding Joy Loneliness and Abandonment Spiritual Warfare Will It Ever Get Better Africa's Transport Infrastructure Heinrich Bofinger,2011-01-01 This book will be of interest to governments in the region and to multilateral and bilateral aid and lending agencies as well as to graduate students faculty and researchers in African studies and transport studies Book Jacket The Santa Fe Magazine ,1927
