Letters of the Rev. Samuel Rutherford Samuel Rutherford,1891      The Scriptorium and Library at Monte Cassino, 1058-1105 Francis Newton,1999-04-29 In all the history of hand written books one of the most distinctive and handsome scripts is that of the abbey of Monte Cassino This study examines for the first time in detail the development of this script during the Abbey's greatest period of wealth and influence under Desiderius abbot 1058-1087 and his successor Oderisius abbot 1087-1105. The characteristic Cassinese hand was established long before but in this period it was transformed into what is today considered its classic form. The present study rests on a fresh examination of many details of the Beneventan South Italian script in aspects incompletely studied before. It aims to provide a new history of Monte Cassino as a writing centre and to offer a context for many unique or valuable texts manuscripts that it processed.

Characteristics of Some English Morphemes Hong Yang, Gao-ming Zhang, 2014-11-10. It is commonly accepted that English letters only represent sounds. Is this indeed the case? If not, how can the concepts represented by English letters be revealed? Analysis on the Ideographic Characteristics of Some English Morphemes provides the answers to these questions through an investigation of around 900 morphemes. The book's point of departure for this investigation is that because English words are composed of letters, their definitions may be linked to the concepts implied by them.
