Families in Canada Today Margrit Eichler,1983 International Journal of Sociology of the Family ,1995 Father Involvement in Canada Jessica Ball,Kerry J. Daly,2012-12-01 Father Involvement in Canada brings together almost two dozen leading scholars of fatherhood issues to examine the roles of Canadian fathers They look at the experiences of fathers from many angles considering different ages ethnicities marital statuses gender partnering and economic brackets and examining issues such as the impact of poverty access to paternity leave and the availability of support from social institutions By co considering these dimensions and viewpoints the book creates a map of interlocking individual familial and socio economic systems in which fathers are embedded National in scope Fatherhood Involvement in Canada is the first book to summarize and challenge current scholarship of Canadian fatherhood and offer new concepts theoretical frameworks and research directions Canada Ernest Ingles,1990 Canadian Journal of Counselling ,1990 Human Affairs ,1986

Canadian Books in Print ,1987 Restructuring Family Policies Maureen Baker,2006 Recent years have seen significant changes in the social policies of many liberal welfare states this is especially true of social programs for families with children Increasingly governments are making family policy trade offs reducing support for some families but improving it for others Why are such trade offs occurring and how do governments differ in their approach to family social policy This study addresses these questions by examining the political demographic and socio economic factors influencing the restructuring of family related programs in OECD countries Adopting a feminist political economy approach Maureen Baker shows that while some governments encourage their citizens to see children as future resources and promote strong support for reproductive health programs child welfare services women s refugees subsidized childcare and pay equity others make these claims while simultaneously reducing family incomes through the deregulation of labour markets and restrictions on income support Ultimately Baker demonstrates that nation states with the best outcomes for families offer a variety of social supports which are increasingly important as global markets reduce economic security for some families while improving the financial situation of others This study also explores strategies employed by states to incorporate or resist international pressures and the reasons why some states tenaciously defend their family policy traditions while others restructure according to international guidelines Drawing from nation based research cross national studies and international data bases Restructuring Family Policies successfully integrates mainstream academic debates about restructuring welfare states with feminist research findings and current policy concerns Vulnerability to Media Effects Ontario.
