The Making Of A Fringe Candidate 1992:

The Making of a Fringe Candidate, 1992 Lenora Fulani,1992 The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland,Robert E. Weems Jr.,2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed African Americans and the Presidency Bruce A. Glasrud,Cary D. Wintz,2009-12-04 African Americans and the Presidency explores the long history of African American candidates for President and Vice President examining the impact of each candidate on the American public as well as the contribution they all made toward advancing racial equality in America Each chapter takes the story one step further in time through original essays written by top experts giving depth to these inspiring candidates some of whom are familiar to everyone and some whose stories may be new Presented with illustrations and a detailed timeline African Americans and the Presidency provides anyone interested in African American history and politics with a unique perspective on the path carved by the predecessors of Barack Obama and the meaning their efforts had for the United States Televised Presidential Debates and Public Policy Sidney Kraus,1999-10 This second edition of the book Televised Presidential Debates and Public Policy provides a comprehensive update on the research production and effects of general election debates between major presidential candidates in 1960 and 1976 through 1996 Using participant observation on site at the debates and interviews and other research methodologies Kraus discusses how debate formats came about the actions of candidate advisors including the spin media coverage of the debates polling and their impact on voters Jacket African-American Orators Richard Leeman,1996-08-28 This long needed sourcebook assesses the unique styles and themes of notable African American orators from the mid 19th century to the present of 43 representative public speakers from W E B Du Bois and Ida B Wells Barnett Martin Luther King Jr and Jesse Jackson to Barbara Jordan and Thurgood Marshall The critical analyses of the oratory of a broad segment of different types of public speakers demonstrate how they have stressed the historical search for freedom upheld American ideals while condemning discriminatory practices against African Americans and have spoken in behalf of black pride This biographical dictionary with its evaluative essays sources for further reading and speech chronologies is designed for broad interdisciplinary use by students teachers activists and general readers in college university institutional and public libraries Independents Rising Jacqueline S. Salit,2012-08-07 A revealing look at how independent voters have been upending the political establishment for thirty years and how they ll decide the future of American politics In a political system where two parties reign supreme 40% of Americans consider themselves neither Democrats nor Republicans but independents. Independents elected President Barack Obama in 2008 and then in a seeming reversal gave control of Congress to the Republicans in 2010. But who are these independents? Angry moderates, Frustrated ideologues, The base for the third party, Reformers or revolutionaries. Jacqueline Salit has spent 30 years as an insider in this growing movement of outsiders. She recounts the little known history of this volatile force as old political institutions and categories are becoming irrelevant even repugnant to many Americans. An architect of unorthodox left-right coalitions within the Perot movement and Reform Party and manager of Michael Bloomberg's three New York mayoral campaigns on the Independence Party line, Salit explores how these unclaimed voters are not only deciding elections but reshaping the political landscape. With a surprising cast of characters from the famous to the unknown, Salit argues that the failure to heed this movement against partisanship and even parties puts political careers at risk and damages essential features of American democracy. She reveals how independents underestimate their own power and how they can make the most of their newfound moment in the sun. Practice, 1993 Presidential Elections, 1789-2008

Donald Richard Deskins, Hanes Walton, Sherman C. Puckett, 2010. Hanes Walton, Donald Deskins and Sherman Puckett have produced a highly impressive collection and valuable contribution to the literature on American electoral politics. This work is indispensable for academic libraries, political scientists, historians and serious students of American government. Immanuel Ness, Professor, Department of Political Science, Brooklyn College, City University of New York. Massive amounts of information about presidential elections which are not readily available elsewhere. Unprecedented coverage in one volume of every single American presidential election. James Gimpel, Professor of Government, University of Maryland. This is an extraordinary research endeavor, the most comprehensive set of aggregate election data ever assembled. Painstakingly researched, this color-coded volume presents data for every presidential election from 1789 to 2008. Unlike most the wide-ranging narrative for this atlas identifies racial patterns in the vote. Everyone who studies or is interested in presidential elections should have this impressive collection of statistical data in their libraries. A visual gem for the digital age. Robert Smith, Professor of Political Science, San Francisco State University. Presidential Elections 1789-2008 is a genuine tour de force that captures in an extremely accessible and comprehensive way the electoral geography of America's presidential elections from Washington to Obama. An invaluable addition to the library of all those interested in presidential elections and U.S. politics. Marion Orr Frederick Lippitt, Professor of Public Policy and Professor of Political Science, Brown University. This volume sets an extraordinarily high standard in scholarship, completeness, description and explanation of our political process. It has been said that all politics are local but never before has this been demonstrated with such clarity and panache using the simple method of standardized tables summarizing voting then showing state and county breakdowns of the numbers greatly strengthened by beautiful full color maps and cartograms. Every scholar of politics and democracy will benefit from the work laid out in this volume. Keith Clarke, Professor of Geography, University of California Santa Barbara. Presidential Elections is an almanac of the popular vote in every presidential election in American history analyzed at the county level with histories of each campaign graphs and stunning four color maps Most Americans are familiar with the crude red state blue state maps used by commentators and campaign strategists and even for want of an alternative by many academics In providing a higher resolution view of voting behavior the authors of this new volume enable examination of local and regional political trends that are invisible in state level aggregations Presidential Elections will enable scholars to more subtly analyze voting behavior campaigns and presidential politics commentators will use it to analyze trends and trace the historical evolution of new coalitions and voting blocs strategists will use it to plan campaigns and mobilize constituencies Presidential Elections will become the standard almanac on the subject a required resource for academic and public libraries as well as for scholars consultants and pundits nationwide Donald R Deskins Jr is a political geographer and Emeritus Professor of Sociology and a former Associate Dean of the Horace H Rackham School of Graduate Studies at the University of Michigan Hanes Walton Jr is Professor of Political Science at the University of Michigan He also holds positions as Senior Research Scientist at the Center for Political Studies and as a faculty member in the Center for Afroamerican and African Studies Sherman C Puckett is a Ph D graduate of the University of Michigan in urban and regional planning He was a mayoral appointee in the data processing department of the Coleman A Young administration in the City of Detroit and recently retired from Wayne County government as manager of technology geographic information systems and development of maintenance management systems The Western Journal of Black Studies ,1977 Current Biography Yearbook ,2000 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 The African American National Biography: Dihigo-Gwynn Henry Louis Gates (Jr.),Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham,2008 An 8 volume reference set containing over 4 000 entries written by distinguished scholars The African American National Biography is the most significant and expansive compilation of black lives in print today Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,1995
