

The Natural House

Charles G. Woods, Malcolm Wells

The Natural House:

The Natural House Frank Lloyd Wright, 1954 When Frank Lloyd Wright turns his attention to one of the most important personal problems now facing practically everyone in our society it is a time for rejoicing The world's greatest architect here meets the urgent problem of suitable shelter for The Family in a democracy in a magnificent and as was to be expected challenging book Here presented at last in full detail is the natural house The moderate cost houses described in this book and profusely illustrated with 116 photographs plans and drawings are houses of infinite variety for people of limited means in which living has become for their owners a purposeful new adventure in freedom and dignity Mr Wright tells the story of the world famous Usonian houses so that we now see in text and illustrations how they have evolved from original conception to final execution He has also written a step by step description of the Usonian Automatic explaining just how that remarkable house is built a simplified method of construction so devised that the owners themselves can build it with great economy and beauty For this purpose there are in addition to Mr Wright's text special photographs and drawings of the method and materials showing clearly how the Usonian Automatic is built
