The New Age:

Perspectives on the New Age James R. Lewis, J. Gordon Melton, 1992-11-03 This book begins with a comprehensive historical section that places the New Age within the context of its predecessor movements. It then focuses on specialized aspects of this subculture from essays on the convergence of New Age spirituality with women's spirituality to an essay on how Evangelical Christians have responded to the movement. The book also examines the international impact of the New Age.

InsurTech Intelligence: AI-Driven Strategies for the New Age of Coverage SNEHA SINGIREEDY, Handbook of New Age James Lewis, Daren Kemp, 2007-05-30 The Handbook of New Age is a comprehensive survey of alternative spiritualities their history their global impact their cultural influence and how they are understood by scholars Chapters by many of the leading scholars of the movement give the latest analysis of contemporary spiritual trends and present up to date observations of the interaction between the New Age movement and many different fields of knowledge and research

Digital Sentinel: AI and the New Age of Cyber Defense Dinesh Rajendran, Mitra Penmetsa, Raghavaran Kendyala, Varun Bitkuri, The New Age Movement Margrethe Løøv, 2024-05-31 This Element introduces New Age religion. The New Age Movement is a loosely cohesive conglomerate of different spiritual currents with no common founder, leader, institution, dogma or scripture. Because of its diversity it may appear amorphous and incoherent at first sight. This Element emphasizes both the unity and diversity of the New Age. It approaches the phenomenon from three main perspectives: 1 the historical development of New Age religion, 2 ideas and practices associated with the New Age and 3 the social organization of the New Age movement. It thus provides a wide angle view that sketches out some of the main patterns that emerge from a mosaic of individual currents and actors associated with the New Age. It also highlights some of the differences within the movement by exploring some ideas and practices in depth.

The Letters of Ruth Pitter Don W. King, 2014-03-27 Although Ruth Pitter (1897-1992) is not well known her credentials as a poet are extensive and in England from the mid 1930s to the mid 1970s she maintained a modest yet loyal readership. In total she produced eighteen volumes of new and collected verse. Her A Trophy of Arms (1936) won the Hawthornden Prize for Poetry in 1937 and in 1954 she was awarded the William E. Heinemann Award for The Ermine (1953). Most notably perhaps she became the first woman to receive the Queen's Gold Medal for Poetry in 1955. Furthermore from 1946 to 1972 she was often a guest on BBC radio and television programs. In 1974 The Royal Society of Literature elected her to its highest honor a Companion of Literature and in 1979 she received her last national award when she was appointed a Commander of the British Empire. Pitter was a voluminous letter writer. Her friends and correspondents read like a Who's Who of twentieth century British literary luminaries including AE George Russell, A R Orage, Hilaire Belloc, Walter de la Mare, Julian Huxley, John Masefield, Phillip and Ottoline Morrell, George Orwell, Dylan Thomas, T S Eliot, C S Lewis, James Stephens, Dorothy L Sayers, Siegfried Sassoon, Virginia Sackville-West, Dorothy Wellesley, Lord David Cecil, John Betjeman, Evelyn Waugh, John Wain, Kathleen Raine and May Sarton. Stylistically Pitter's letters are marked by crisp prose precise imagery and elegant simplicity reflecting a well read and vigorous mind lithe curious penetrating analytical and perceptive Of her more than one thousand letters covering the years 1908 1988 published here is a generous selection These selected letters go a long way toward illustrating Pitter s desire to reach a public interested in her as both a poet and personal commentator These letters offer an understanding of the silent music the dance in stillness the hints and echoes and messages of which everything is full reflected in her life and poetry In total they provide an essential introduction to the work of this neglected twentieth century poet

The New Age Movement and the Biblical Worldview

John P. Newport,1998 John Newport delivers a comprehensive study of the impact of New Age beliefs on contemporary culture and on Christianity itself while also offering an effective biblical antidote to today s worldview crisis After first surveying the historical development of the New Age worldview from ancient times through important tendencies in nineteenth century America to recent Far Eastern influences Newport explores in depth eleven key areas of the New Age worldview and contrasts each area of belief with the traditional biblical worldview

Primitive Passions

Marianna Torgovnick,1998-10 In this provocative and illuminating book Marianna Torgovnick explores the psychology of our profound attraction to cultures we call primitive Whether located in Africa the South Pacific or the American Southwest the primitive has become synonymous in the Western imagination with a range of emotions and experiences thought to be lost in modern life reverence for the land and for nature strong communal bonds sexual plentitude and perhaps most intriguing and ecstatic sense of connection to the universe and the life force Torgovnick investigates the numerous ways we have turned toward the primitive out of spiritual hunger for such deeply human experiences a hunger that could once be satisfied within the West s own mystical traditions but that often no longer can be Brilliantly encompassing religion art psychology literature and other aspects of our culture Primitive Passions offers new insight into our ideas of spirituality and gender and ultimately into the hidden but vital parts of ourselves
